AN EDITORIAL WORD

THIS ANNUAL is not complete. I suppose no one expected it to be. Though incomplete, it may yet be useful. It represents days and nights, weeks and months, of the hardest and most exacting toil of the compiler's life. Few, if any, will ever think, and perhaps none will ever know of the tax upon the time, strength, and patience, of the one charged with the duty of gathering the material and preparing it for the pages of this work. But with all the tax and toil of the work, there has been a peculiar fascination and a really keen pleasure, which quite fully compensated for all the service rendered.

In the hard work of preparing and completing the book, the Convention stenographer, The Christian Publishing Association Agent, the printers, proof-readers, conference secretaries, heads of departments, secretaries of State, and other organizations, and many others, have fully shared, and to them the editor bows, and gratefully acknowledges the service.

Special mention is made of Pressley E. Zartmann, who superintends the composing rooms and general printery of The Christian Publishing Association, for the part he has so kindly and efficiently taken in the make-up of the book.

The editor is well satisfied with, and truly thankful for, the matter furnished by the Woman's Boards of the American Christian Convention, and feels quite assured of its value and importance to all who may have occasion to be informed. The editor is under special obligation to Mrs. Lulu Craig Helfenstein, and Mrs. Alice M. Burnett, for proof-reading, and other valuable service rendered in the interest of accuracy and fulness of information.

The grouping of the conferences, Sunday-schools, and Christian Endeavor societies, is a new feature, which will furnish a convenient way of handling all such information. The suggestion came from Rev. Oliver W. Powers, D. D., and while the plan as originally decided upon for the present volume would have been a very helpful arrangement and a decided improvement over other years, we gladly accept the suggestion and adopt the plan, believing that it will greatly facilitate the handling of such matter by those who need, or care to utilize such information.

The statistics have been carefully compiled, and yet they may not be absolutely correct, for it was most difficult, indeed, to find the facts from some of the sources of information at our command; and then there was always the uncertainty of the location of churches when the State was not named, where the conference included parts of two or more States. But for all practical purposes these statistics are reliable, and are given to our readers with the hope that they may be helpful.

The book may have its imperfections, may have been poorly edited, may have some misspelled words, or even worse, some "grammatical inaccuracies," or a t uncrossed, or an i undotted, but it represents a great people and emphasizes great principles.

The people called Christians, accept the Bible as their only authoritative Guide Book, in the realm of faith and conduct. They do not interpret the Bible, they believe it, and practice it to the best of their ability. Each individual is left free to interpret the Book for himself and to practice its teachings as they may be made clear to him.

They believe in Jesus Christ, as the Son of God, the Savior of men, and if in any sense whatsoever they have a creed, it is, that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God. They believe that whosoever believeth on him hath life, and that of such believers, Jesus is building the Church, against which He said the gates of hades should not prevail, but which He would at last present to Himself not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing.

They receive people into membership upon their profession of faith in Jesus Christ. They only ask that men shall repent toward God, and have faith in Jesus Christ. They never had any humanly devised statements of faith, or authoritative church creed, but have always believed them unnecessary, and unscriptural, and tending ever and always toward the division of the Body of Christ.

They preach the gospel as revealed in Jesus Christ, and insist upon the individual coming into a vital spiritual relationship with Him as their Redeemer. They have Missionary, Educational, Publishing, and other great enterprises for the spread of the gospel and the enlargement of the Kingdom of God.

Their growth has not been great; numerically they are a "feeble folk," but the principles which gave them birth, and for which they have lived and labored for a hundred and eighteen years, have grown in favor and expressed themselves in power, until more or less the whole Christian world is influenced by them. The Council of the Federation of the Churches of Christ in America, is in spirit and purpose, an expression of the unity for which the Christians have always prayed.

They have ever desired that all men should come to know Jesus Christ, and embody His virtues in life and express them in conduct. Should you desire to know what this body of believers has done, and is doing, read this book, and then should you desire to know more of a body of believers who differ in opinion and yet dwell together in the spirit of unity and the bond of peace, write the editor, and the information will be gladly and promptly furnished you.

"It was at this meeting which Elder Badger describes in his journal, where a professed disciple of Christ, who had very frequently persecuted the Christians, stood against a large tree, on the Sabbath, and listened to the preaching of Fernald and Badger, as the meeting was held that day in the grove, and then, with an audible voice, declared 'that was the truth and none could deny it:' and on the following morning, went down early into a thicket in his grove, and hung himself."

ily in earnest and of large executiveness, undertook to rekindle from the smouldering embers of former failures an interest, the latent existence even of which but few recognized. Rev. J. P. Barrett presented the Convention with a cane, the following being the presentation speech:

"I hold in my hand a walking-cane which has a most interesting history. On the fourth of August, 1794, just two years after the inauguration of the Christian movement, which was then known under the name of 'Republican Methodists,' the brethren had assembled in Lebanon church, Surrey Co., Va., and smarting as they were under the lash of sectarianism, and hampered by a partisan name, Rev. Rice Haggard, with an abiding love for all of God's people, with a purpose to regain the primitive name and to strike boldly for the union spirit among God's people, arose and moved to adopt the name Christian, to the exclusion of all party or sectarian names. The motion was declared carried. On that sacred spot long stood the house of worship in which that memorable conference was held. Time has dealt gently with its timbers, some of which yet remain.

"This cane (holding it in full view of the Convention) was made from one of the sills of that house. I present it to you, Mr. President, as the representative of the American Christian Convention, to be kept by you, and by you delivered to your successor, as the insignia of the presidential office in this body."

Discussed plans of union with the Christian Union Church and Rev. H. J. Duckworth, D. D., who had recently united with the Christians, was elected secretary of the Publishing Department and made a member of the Executive Board.

HOME MISSIONS IN 1912

By Oliver W. Powers, Home Mission Secretary

The work of the Home Mission Department for 1912 has been conducted on the same lines as in former years, with some additional activities, to meet the changing conditions.

HOME MISSION POINTS

The following city churches in the bounds of the Southern Christian Convention have been aided during the year:—Third church, Norfolk, Va.; Chapel Hill, N. C.; Lamberts Point, Norfolk, Va.; Portsmouth, Va.; Raleigh, N. C.; South Norfolk, Va.; Rose Hill, Columbus, Ga.; Winchester, Va. These are all churches that have not yet come to self-support, but are prosperous and thriving.

In the North and East, aid has been given or continued to the following churches:—Kearny, N. J.; Lynn, Mass.; Toronto, Ont.; Coshocton, O.; Columbus, O.; Walnut Hills, Dayton, O.; Olney, Ill.; Louisville, Ill. One or two of these churches that have been receiving aid from the Board for a long time are looking forward to speedy attainment of self-support—probably in the present year. The following churches, once self-supporting, have received aid:—Eastport, Me.; Manchester, N. H.; Portland, Ind.; Lebanon, Ind.; Winterset, Ia.; Romeo, Mich.; Lake City, Ia.

Two frontier fields have received appropriations—Wyoming and Washington. In the former a small amount of the appropriation has been used for evangelistic work, in the latter a missionary has been supported for the entire conference, with especial charge of the churches of Montesano and Wynoochee Valley.

Two points have received special support. In western Idaho the Woman's

Board of the Miami Ohio Christian Conference has partly supported a home mission pastor. In Boston the Woman's Board for Home Missions has contributed to the support of the pastor and the Syrian Sunday-school.

NEW BUILDINGS

Chapel Hill, N. C., and Louisville, Ill., are erecting new church buildings. Raleigh, N. C., is rebuilding. Kearny, N. J., is finishing a temporary building.

CONFERENCE FIELD WORK

One conference, the New York Eastern, has been aided to a Field Secretary, whose duty has been to visit the churches, aid them to introduce proper financial methods, encourage them to undertake denominational enterprises, secure pastors for those without pastoral care, and in general contribute to their efficiency. The Secretary has been instrumental in encouraging a number of congregations, and safeguarding considerable property which otherwise would have been lost to the denomination. The work will be continued in 1913.

COOPERATION

The Mission Board has paid during the year ending September 31, for the work above enumerated, $5,668.79, besides the specials. Other bodies have contributed to the same work, as reported by the churches aided, $2,968.41, making a total for the work at these points of $8,637.20. The churches and fields themselves report that they have raised for their own work $24,609.92, while they returned the sum of $786.56 for the general work of the denomination.

NEW APPROPRIATIONS

At the October meeting of the Mission Board, appropriations were made in aid of new organizations at Albany, Mo., Ashboro, N. C., and High Point, N. C.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

The church building at the corner of Tyler and Kneeland Streets, in the city of Boston, has been placed in the hands of the Mission Board. This gives the greatest opportunity the Home Mission Department has ever had for direct effort in city evangelization and work for the immigrant. The population surrounding the church is almost entirely foreign. A prosperous Chinese Sunday-school has been conducted in the building for years. Recently a Sunday-school for Syrian children has been established. Other nationalities are asking for similar privileges. The location is ideal for ministry of this kind. The establishment of a strong work in Boston will contribute to the advancement of all our work in New England, besides affording expression of such interest in city evangelism and work for the foreign population as may be developed in the denomination. It is the intention of the department to push the work vigorously from the vantage-ground thus secured.

DEPARTMENTAL ACTIVITIES

The usual administrative and publicity work of the office has been pushed as hard as the means and time at the disposal of the Secretary would admit. Visitation of conferences, institutes, and churches, using the stereopticon and other illustrative methods, has occupied more than one-third of the time of the Secretary during the year. In addition, it has been the care of the department to promote the circulation of mission literature, the organization of study classes, the adoption of plans to increase the efficiency of the churches, especially in raising money for benevolent objects. A considerable portion of the correspondence of the department has had to do with securing pastors for vacant churches. This has been done where possible in connection with conference officers or committees charged with the same duty.

SOME PRESSING NEEDS

The work of conference supervision should become general, and where conferences cannot undertake it without aid, the Board should be supplied with means to help in the support of field workers.

The frontier work in the two conferences of Wyoming and Washington needs to be pushed vigorously. The Board calls for special contributions for an advance in both of these sections.

Franklinton, started as an enterprise of the Mission Board, but latterly under the care of the Educational Department, is promised the cooperation of the Home Mission Department in erecting and equipping a new school-building, and special gifts are desired for this purpose.

There is an immediate and pressing necessity for a Building Fund, which can be loaned to needy new churches, or used for initiating new enterprises. A recent call for a Portable Church has been met by action of the Mission Board of the Southern Christian Convention. The General Board should have one or more of these structures. They could be put to use at once.

HOME MISSION WEEK

The year has been notable for the accomplishment of one great cooperative task—enlisting the churches and denominations in a nation-wide presentation of the needs and opportunities of the Home Mission enterprise. In this our department has taken a share to the extent of endeavoring to acquaint our churches and ministers with the purpose and significance of the movement and of furnishing them with material for the proper observance of the occasion. It is too early to estimate the net results of the campaign, but the preliminary work has already brought a quickening of interest. The great gathering of the Churches in the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, in Chicago, December 4, 1912, afforded another opportunity for cooperation, and gave evidence of the steadily increasing sense of solidarity in the work of the kingdom.

NEW FACTORS IN HOME MISSIONS

There was a time when home missions meant increasing the number of churches. There are some who are disappointed, and consider that nothing definite is being done in home missions unless large figures can be set down concerning Sunday-schools, churches, and conferences organized, with many converts and a great ingathering of membership. These results are always to be sought, and are of exceeding worth, but their totaling is not the sum of home mission effort. Our churches are fronting new conditions, and are not always able to maintain themselves in the face of the new problems, much less contribute in a forceful way to their solution. So the work of home missions must include preserving the churches that now exist and strengthening them for their work. It is as much our duty to spread a church over the community in which it is found, for that community's helping and uplift, as to attempt to spread a conference over a section or a State.

To do these things, there is need first of all of accurate knowledge. Hence, studies of community life, of denominational conditions, of rural conditions, of city need, of nation-wide tendencies, neglects, or opportunities It is the experience of the great denominations that the Home Mission Department can come closest to the great questions here involved, and therefore this department is the one to which the work is usually committed.

Added to knowledge must come a new realization that the Church is made to serve the present age, if it will fulfil its calling. Hence, the new note of Social Service. Here again the home mission agencies find work ready to their hand, and the study of applied Christianity comes naturally as a part of the curriculum of this great church school of practice.

Finally, the conviction is growing that no one denomination or group of denominations is sufficient for these things, and in the outworking of them is coming a sense of the imperative need for unity of sympathy and action. Co-operation in home missions is the word that is being spoken out with new emphasis, until it bids fair to become the established rule for American Christianity.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

By Rev. M. T. Morrill, Foreign Mission Secretary

WHEN all things have been taken into consideration, we have a good report to make of the foreign work for the year ending Sept. 30, 1912. Readers of THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL will remember that we started the year with a financial handicap, which made much change in the Japan Mission necessary; then in Porto Rico the work has been greatly hindered by sickness, Miss Mishler returning home in March, Pastor Hernandez, our leading Porto Rican worker, suffering for months with malaria and losing his estimable wife after weeks of illness when both were in the hospital. However, the work in both fields has continued and shows better results than we anticipated. Our money and effort are having good results.

IN A NUTSHELL

The statistical results for the year ending September 30, 1912, are as follows:

Total home income, regular	$15,007.05
For special purposes	4,819.65
Total income for foreign work	$19,826.70
Total income from the fields	$ 1,137.66
Foreign missionaries	14
Native workers	18
Force in the field (5 on furlough)	27

Stations where missionaries reside	7
Out-stations worked	34
Organized churches	18
Church communicants	1,029
Baptisms last year	103
Sunday-schools maintained	41
Pupils in Sunday-schools	2,832

Just at present, of course, we have no resident missionaries at two of our Porto Rican stations.

JAPAN

For the past year the appropriation for Japan was $10,000, and we have done no building there at all, and practically no increase of our equipment has been made. Now a church is in process of construction at Utsunomiya, provided for by Mrs. Susie V. Fry; but this is not Mission property. Figures for the work in that country are as follows:

	1911	1912
Baptisms	91	87
Received by letter	11	19
Total membership	880	873
Sunday-school enrollment	2,508	2,087
Total money collected	$673.94	$705.54

It will be remembered that the dropping of fourteen points in Japan is quite sufficient to account for any appearance of retrogression in the Japan work. The results are very cheering, and give some idea of the effectiveness of the Mission and the Japanese brethren. We now have thirteen ordained pastors there. Most surprising of all is the rapid development of the new Naka Shibuya church in Tokyo.

Two new organs are badly needed in two of the new points in the Middle Field, and we have just received $30 for one, and a like sum will provide for another.

A movement is on foot, inaugurated by the Japanese brethren, to celebrate the completion of twenty-five years of our work in Japan by a celebration next spring, at Ishinomaki, where our first church was organized. They have memorialized the Mission Board to send the Foreign Mission Secretary to that celebration, and have already raised $25 toward his expenses. The Board at its annual session in October directed the Foreign Secretary to prepare for the trip, and solicits funds for that purpose. There will be great advantages from such a visit.

PORTO RICO

Our greatest achievement on this field for the past year has been the construction of the new Ponce church building, the contract price for which was $6,250. Brick and cement were the materials; and although the building is small, yet it is sightly and convenient. We are expecting the dedication in January, 1913.

Owing to the lack of complete reports last year, we cannot give comparative statistics.

Baptisms	16
Received by letter	4
Total membership	156
Sunday-school enrollment	849
Total money collected	$432.08

While the Mission Board was in session news came that the handsome little Arus chapel was wrecked by a flood, which also carried away a number of houses in the town and drowned some of the inhabitants. This is a sad loss to us, and will entail an expenditure of not less than $450 in rebuilding, for which we must depend on the interested friends of the work. Up to the time of that disaster the Mission Board controlled and owned property in Porto Rico to the amount of about $14,000, most of which has been accumulated since the Huntington quadrennial.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS

Received for general foreign fund, for year ending Sept. 30, 1910	$14,208.60
For year ending Sept. 30, 1911	19,530.98
For year ending Sept. 30, 1912	15,007.05

But during the year 1911 we had the benefit of the big fund started at the Troy Convention, which finally amounted to $7,861.54. However, that endeavor cut our normal foreign mission receipts down to $11,669.44. The receipts for the year just closed show a real gain of $800 over those of 1910.

The deficit Oct. 1, 1910, was	$8,082.20
The deficit Oct. 1, 1911, was	4,787.76
The deficit Oct. 1, 1912, was	6,769.06

It seems that we are just recovering from the Troy effort, and that we may expect larger receipts during the current year.

THE BUDGET PLAN

The hearty cooperation shown by all the conferences in adopting the Conference Budget Missionary plan leads us to high hopes for the future. Our foreign receipts should be increased by two or three thousand dollars the coming year. May we not ask the prayers and hearty effort of every person who reads this?

WHAT WE NEED AT ONCE

Several hundred dollars for a chapel site in Japan.

About $450 with which to rebuild the Arus chapel.

Only $30 for an organ to use in Japan.

About $500 for the contemplated visitation to Japan.

THE BRITISH GUIANA MISSION

By M. T. Morrill, Foreign Mission Secretary

About twelve years ago a minister of the gospel from British Guiana, representing one of the larger denominations, was befriended by Rev. S. A. Howell, of Newport News, Va., and given substantial tokens of fraternity. Upon returning to his own land, that minister stated publicly how he had been met with a cold shoulder among his own brethren, and how a people called simply "Christians," or the "Christian Church" had shown him the spirit of Christian brotherhood. Rev. J. A. Johnson, of Georgetown, Demerara, a Baptist minister, was led to inquire about the denomination to which Mr. Howell belonged, later opened correspondence with that brother, and found the Church he had longed for and dreamed about. Immediately Mr. Johnson declared himself a "Christian" simply, and at once began to preach the position and principles of the Christian Church. Having no fellowship and no church building, he betook himself to the street corner, and for years has held services in two or three sections of Georgetown, in the open street, where as many as two thousand listeners have nightly frequented his meetings.

But the people are very poor, and once or twice attempts to secure a small auditorium and furnishings have failed because the church gathered by Mr. Johnson was financially unable to carry the burden. But undismayed, they have continued the service, until there is now a church of about 220 members, and a list of people waiting to be members much larger than the membership.

They cannot be received because there is no place of meeting for so large a number.

All these years Mr. Johnson has continued to correspond with Mr. Howell, Rev. H. E. Long, the Foreign Mission Secretary, and perhaps others. He has repeatedly besought us to help his work. His appeals were laid before the Quadrennial Convention at Troy, in 1910, and recommended to the Mission Board for limited assistance.

In the late spring of 1909, Rev. S. A. Howell, accompanied by Rev. N. E. Higgs, went to British Guiana, ordained Mr. Johnson as a minister of the gospel, licensed four others as preachers, organized the Demerara Christian Conference, put several churches in order, helped to organize a Woman's Missionary Society, and in general much strengthened the work. He also formed a conference in the Barbadoes Islands, where the work was cared for by Rev. E. Bernard and a licentiate. The money for this journey of Mr. Howell and Mr. Higgs was gathered by voluntary contributions through The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Having repeatedly essayed to come to the United States that he might present his work face to face with the brethren, Mr. Johnson finally started in March, 1912, with Rev. J. E. Samuels (a young man drawn to the Christian Church just as Mr. Johnson had been), and after misadventures that were overruled by a kind Providence, reached Newport News about six weeks after sailing from Georgetown. The two brethren attended the Afro-Christian Convention, and Mr. Samuels was ordained. While the latter visited among the churches, Mr. Johnson paid a visit to the Mission Council at Dayton, and then returned to his own land. Mr. Samuels appeared before the Mission Board during the session in October, 1912, and supplemented Mr. Johnson's presentations, then returned to canvass among the churches in the South.

The Afro-Christian Convention voted to raise $1,000 for the work of the Christian Church in Demerara, and we believe they are well able to do it. The Mission Board passed the following resolutions, which were communicated to the Afro-Christian Convention and the British Guiana brethren:

Having fully considered the application and statements of Revs. J. A. Johnson and J. E. Samuels, ministers of the Christian denomination in British Guiana, directed to the Board in behalf of their work, the following was adopted:

That the Board express its sympathy with the work and spirit of the brethren in British Guiana.

That, in view of the growing financial needs of our present mission fields and our inability to properly support the work now in hand, we cannot at this time become responsible for a new mission field, and that the Board and brotherhood have a definite understanding that we do not assume either administrative or financial responsibility for that work.

That the Board express its belief that the work in British Guiana is a great opportunity for the Afro-Christian Convention and its constituency, and that we urge our colored brethren to do their best to raise the one thousand dollars for the said work according to their recent vote in convention.

That this Board offer its assistance to the Afro-Christian Convention by way of literature, counsel, forwarding of funds, or like service.

Since returning home Mr. Johnson has reared up the frame for the church, which he had started some time before, and has the building partly, if not wholly, enclosed. It will be very inexpensive, and, when completed, utterly inadequate. But, still, on the strength of the interest manifested in this country he is going on with the work. While the brethren of British Guiana make heart-rending appeals for assistance, yet they declare their loyalty to the Christian Church, and their determination to keep on in spite of indifference and lack of assistance. Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Samuels made a fine impression on the people they met here in the North, by their humble Christian spirit, their devotion, and their loyalty to the cause.

The Woman's Boards

HISTORICAL

During the year 1912, Mrs. Clella Loback, vice-president of the Woman's Board for Home Missions, resigned, and Mrs. Athella Howsare was chosen to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Howsare, being recording secretary of the Board, her election to the vice-presidency created a vacancy which was filled by the election of Miss LuEmma Hess, of Dayton, Ohio, to that position. Mrs. Emily K. Bishop, Superintendent of Literature, resigned and Mrs. Emma S. Powers, Dayton, Ohio, was elected. Mrs. Ella S. Worley, Superintendent of Young People's Work, resigned, and Miss Margaret H. Brickhouse, of Norfolk, Virginia, was elected.

WOMAN'S HOME BOARD SPECIAL

By Mrs. Athella Howsare, Vice-President

At the last meeting of the General Mission Board it was voted, "That the Woman's Board for Home Missions be asked to take the Boston, Massachusetts, work, as a special objective, and that as soon as possible they notify the Home Mission Secretary of the amount which they will attempt to raise for this special work." In this connection the Woman's Board passed the following resolution: "That we prayerfully and energetically undertake to raise this year, $2,200, including that secured from one hundred Life Memberships for the special support of our Syrian Mission and Boston work." This resolution, which means $1,000 for Boston, was discussed enthusiastically, always favorably, and was passed unanimously. Our women expressed the belief that in the hearty support of this Special we shall more easily carry on our general work. One hundred new Life Members this year is an advance over former years, a growth that the women felt we must make.

The Boston work is one that has always appealed strongly to our women. Now that the "Old Church" property has been deeded to the Mission Board of the Christian Church and the possibilities growing out of this step are so promising, new inspiration comes to us and we are fired with a new zeal. In our Mission Study Classes we have been brought to see the claims of Foreign Missions in America. We feel that God is opening wide the door of evangelistic opportunity to our own women of the Christian Church. Not that the work is not sufficiently large and important to need the support of our entire constituency, but the Mission Board this years asks the Woman's Home Board to make Boston its Special. Boston, with that splendid opportunity for a self-supporting Chinese church growing out of our Chinese Sunday-school,—Boston, with that eager, impulsive swarm of Syrian children clamoring for that which will satisfy body and soul,—Boston, with its possibilities of future strength and usefulness. Dare we fail to enter this open door? We have never so much as hesitated. Our vote was to undertake this work prayerfully and energetically. When we care enough for an enterprise to really pray for it, we do not leave our Father to work alone, but we become busy, too. Let us ask Him to direct us to those whom we should enroll as Life members of our Home Board, in order that their own lives may be enriched and at the same time their money may be helping to save souls and to save America.

WORK OF THE WOMAN'S BOARD FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS

By Alice V. Morrill, President

The Mission Board have usually given to the Woman's Foreign Board some special object for which to work. In spite of repeated instructions to the contrary, money which should have gone to the general fund has in some cases been turned to the Special Fund and it is always the General Fund which is most needy. The executive committee of the Foreign Board presented to the Mission Board, at their last session, a plan which would give our women a definite work and which would also help the general work of the Mission Board. This plan was approved and it gives me pleasure to tell you about it.

Our Woman's Foreign Board have assumed the full financial responsibility for the support of the Sendai Station. This means the work in the city of Sendai and the appropriation includes salaries of the missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. McCord and of Pastor Kitano, the rent of buildings in which Sunday-schools are held in different parts of the city, repairs on the property, insurance, and other incidental expenses. Roughly estimating the annual appropriation it is $1,600. Last year we gave for the general work of Foreign Missions $1,401.46, which means that we must give at least $200 more than last year. Five Woman's Conference Boards support Japanese pastors and they will continue to do so. Our dues, personal offerings, mite-box money, whatever is not designated for some special purpose, will be devoted to the support of the Sendai Station. A few new members, a few new societies, a few more personal gifts, and we will have the desired amount. Nearly $600 was given for the Weston Memorial last year. An equal amount this year for the general work will enable us to care for the Sendai Station in splendid shape and give them something with which to enlarge the work.

Our very own missionaries! Let us uphold them by our daily prayer. J. Campbell White says: "If we could get a definite group of people at home into the habit of supporting by prayer each missionary in the thick of the fight, by this simple method alone the efficiency of the present missionary force could probably be doubled without adding a single new missionary." Sisters, let us determine to make this the best year in our history.

THE EDUCATIONAL OUTLOOK

By W. G. Sargent, Providence, R. I.

THE history of our educational work for the past year indicates a rising tide in our educational affairs. The numerous articles in The Herald of Gospel Liberty, bearing upon almost every phase of the subject, from all sections of the Church, and the enlargement of the Educational columns of the same paper give evidence of the increasing interest being brought to bear upon our schools and colleges, the work they are accomplishing, and the ideals they ought, in the judgment of the writers, to uphold.

Doubtless much of this unusual discussion has been due to the ever-increasing tendency to divorce the teaching of religion and anything that savors of it from our public schools. It is being more and more felt that we are nearing a crisis with respect to our national school system and religion, and the only solution of this very perplexing problem, or, at least, the most immediate solution, is the religious school, founded and supported by the Church. It is not too much to say that some discover in the secularization of the public school on the one hand and the development of a system of schools of a very considerable portion of our co-religionists on the other imminent danger to the foundations of Protestant Christianity. Conjoined with this is the rising sense of the value of the denominational school in the development and training of those who will lead the forces of the kingdom in the immediate future. It is increasingly felt that the value of the denominational school in this respect can scarcely be over-estimated. Hence a quickened interest in their welfare.

The contribution which our schools have made to our denominational life has been considerable. It is prophetic of much larger value in the future that interest is being so awakened and hopes are rising so high for the promises our colleges hold. Unquestionably from every quarter our people are turning to them as a real force in the development of our church life, and recognizing their very great worth to the kingdom at large. More than once during the last year those who are very closely in touch with our church work, at least sectionally, have appealed to their constituency for support as the single hope for advancement.

The progress of the past year has been marked. In material equipment Palmer, by relocating at Albany, Mo., has secured to the denomination a well-equipped building valued with improvements at over $80,000. The New Palmer is not only free from debt, but will, with the sale of the former buildings, be able to increase its endowment by a considerable margin. The old buildings at Franklinton have been sold and plans for the erection of a new college building, of imposing appearance and superior equipment, have been adopted by the Board of Control, and the work is already under way. In Toronto, Ontario, a residence has been purchased and equipped with dormitory facilities for the student body there. This will serve to bind the students together and will surround them with the best of home and religious influences.

PALMER COLLEGE, ALBANY, MO.

Elon College has liquidated its debt of nearly $50,000, and is planning extensive improvements in its plant.

Most of the schools report record attendances this year. The enrollment of all of our schools is at present considerably larger than any year in the history of the denomination. It is encouraging to note in connection with this that the number of young men in attendance as candidates for the ministry is not far from one hundred. What this in itself means to the future of the work is not difficult to decide. The number of instructors employed is about ninety.

No adequate presentation of the year's work is possible without more extended notice of the removal of Palmer to its new home. By so doing the usefulness of the college promises to be greatly increased. The guiding genius of the college, in the person of its president, Dr. Watkins, is making for a larger and more highly developed college, which will add its strength to the developing life of the West. The question of the federation of our western schools is a most important one and will doubtless come up for reconsideration in the near future.

Union Christian College, under the presidency of Dr. Long, maintains its standard of efficiency and plans are under way for the enlargement of its endowment and the better equipment of the school. Jireh is seeking to meet its intensified problem of the great West, and the efforts of the president and those associated with him deserve the best support of the denomination. Kansas Christian College closed in the summer and has not yet opened for work. The question of federation is, as we understand it, but tentatively settled. Weaubleau is heroically seeking to meet its problems, but its limited resources make it difficult. In the East, Palmer Institute-Starkey Seminary reports a good attendance and the work for the year as opening out well.

Special note should be made of the New Franklinton. This of all the latter years' history of the institution is the time for largely increased givings to this most worthy institution. Franklinton occupies a unique position in the denomination. It is the only home missionary educational institution we are at present supporting. It is the child of the Convention, owned and supported by the Convention, and is thus entirely dependent upon the gifts of the people for financial backing. The usefulness of this institution is limited only by the support of the Church. The present is critical, inasmuch as, in its work of construction, the Board of Control is limited by the Executive Board of the Convention to a sum appreciably near the amount on hand. This is the time for those who wish this work well to give assistance, and that, if possible, in considerable amounts.

The Secretary was privileged to visit one of our colleges during the year, being present for several days at the commencement exercises of Defiance College. It was a real pleasure and must serve to any one else to whom the privilege is open, as it did to the Secretary, as an inspiration to larger activity on behalf of our splendidly growing institutions. One of the advance moves of Defiance College, which we note with considerable satisfaction, is the provision made for correspondence work in such departments as are legitimately open to such possibilities. We feel that the college is best serving its purpose, which in a limited way opens out such opportunities to the young man or woman who might otherwise be denied these advantages.

The department has issued during the year several thousand pieces of literature bearing upon our educational interests and these have for the most part been distributed throughout the Church. It has been thought that this was good policy, for here as everywhere the question of interesting our people is primarily a question of spreading information. No attempt has been made at advertising our colleges outside of the denomination, as it has been felt that work could be better done by the colleges themselves, with their clearer knowledge of local conditions.

The receipts of the year dating from Nov. 1, 1911, to Nov. 1, 1912, amounted to $2,673.16. While we appreciate the increase in financial support, the amount contributed does not in any sense equal the giving power of the denomination. The department has set its goal at $5,000 a year, and will steadily work to that end. The practice of "Special College Days" should be continued. It is one of the most effectual ways of bringing our schools and colleges to the attention of our people. But the contributions then should not lessen those of the Annual Offering, but should, quite on the contrary, increase the general gifts of the people. To the end that larger contributions should be made, the cooperation of the pastors is most urgently needed. That is becoming a more marked evidence of developing interest.

FRANKLINTON CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

(Abridged from Sketch of the School by Rev. Z. A. Poste)

Franklinton Christian College, located at Franklinton, North Carolina, was the outgrowth of a long-felt need of the colored people of the Christian Church for a school of their own, in which they and their children might be educated.

This need, so long felt in the hearts of the people, broke into an enthusiastic flame at the annual session of the North Carolina Christian Conference, held at Whites Grove, North Carolina, in the autumn of 1872. Rev. J. W. Wellons was present and submitted a resolution which called for the immediate establishment of a school in which young men might be educated for the ministry.

The resolution was adopted, but its object was not realized until several years later. At the annual session of this conference, held in 1878, it was decided that a common school for colored pupils should be opened in the Christian church at Franlinton, North Carolina.

Henry E. Long, a promising young man with a fair education, was chosen teacher. The school was opened soon after the close of conference, and enrolled a large number of children and young people. The term of school was short, but successful.

At the opening of the school, in the autumn of 1879, there were so many pupils that an assistant teacher was a necessity, and the church was too small to meet the needs of the growing work. The people were poor, but had built a small meeting-house, and to raise money enough for a schoolhouse suitable for the various grades of the school was to them impossible. The pastor, Rev. George W. Dunn, of the Christian church in Franklinton, was a highly-respected colored man, into whose hands there fell one day a copy of "The Golden Censer," a delightsome little paper, published in Portland, Maine. Pastor Dunn thought this paper was a publication of the Christian Church in the North. He addressed a letter to the editor and told him of the condition of the colored people, their need of education, and of the school, which, for want of a more suitable place, was being conducted in the Christian church.

This letter was published in The Golden Censer. Rev. W. O. Cushing, of New York, a minister in the Christian Church, a man of sweet and devout spirit, and possessed of a rare poetic gift, was a regular contributor to The Censer. The letter from Pastor Dunn was read by Rev. Cushing, clipped by him from The Golden Censer, and sent to the editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty. By this means the letter was brought to the attention of the people for whom it was intended when sent to The Golden Censer by Pastor Dunn. Quick responses were made. Many letters were received by Pastor Dunn, expressive of sympathy for the colored people, and of desire to help them. Among the first to write were Dr. Austin Craig, Dr. J. P. Watson, Rev. J. G. Wilson, and J. E. Brush.

Dr. Watson was at that time secretary for the Children's Mission, and kept before the readers of The Herald of Gospel Liberty the condition and needs of the colored people, and made earnest appeals for money with which to help them in their efforts to get an education. Responses to these calls came in quite freely, and it was soon decided to send some one to Franklinton, to take charge of the school which had been so successfully carried on by Teacher Long. A call was made by Secretary Watson for some one to go to Franklinton to become principal of the school; and to this call Rev. George Young, of Carlisle, New York, volunteered his service. Receiving the appointment, Rev. Young went to Franklinton in the autumn of 1879, and took charge of the school, with Teacher Long as his assistant.

Mr. J. E. Brush, a business man of New York City, went at the request of Dr. Watson, to Franklinton and looked quite carefully into the conditions as they then were. This he did at his own personal charges.

Rev. J. W. Wellons, then residing at Franklinton, rendered valuable service and gave wise counsel in all matters pertaining to the work, and upon his advice the original lot was selected.

The proposition was then made to the colored people by Secretary Watson, that if they would buy this lot, which was large enough for a school-building and a dwelling house, deed it to the American Christian Convention, and build on it a home suitable for the principal and the teachers who would come from the North to assist him, the white people would erect the school-building for them. The proposition was accepted, and the agreement fulfilled by both parties.

In collecting money and getting material with which to meet their part of the obligation, the colored people were aided by their white friends in Franklinton, some of whom were quite liberal in their gifts.

Rev. J. W. Wellons was made superintendent of the work of constructing the buildings. Under his superintendency, the work of construction moved on without much delay; and in the spring of 1880, the corner-stone of the school-building was laid. The address delivered on this occasion, so full of meaning to the colored people, was by Rev. J. P. Barrett, D. D., then pastor of the Christian church at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Work on the building was well directed, and in the early autumn of 1880 the people were called to the dedicatory services. Rev. Thomas Walker, pastor of the Christian church in Suffolk, Virginia, and editor of The Christian Sun, gave the address. Into the new building the school was moved from the meeting-house, and Principal Young soon found himself in charge of a large number of pupils. There were among them, little children, below the age now fixed for admittance to the public school; there were the youth, and young men and women; there were men and women of mature years, and those who were well advanced toward old age.

The school was christened, "The Franklinton Literary and Theological Institute." This name was borne by the school ten years, when, in the school year 1890-1891, a charter was obtained under the name Franklinton Christian College. The school-building was planned for day students, and a few young men for whom dormitories and a kitchen were arranged on the third floor. The young men who occupied these dormitories brought their provisions from their homes, and did their own cooking.

When the school was transferred from the church to the school-building, the condition was reached which had been in mind eight years before, when, at the annual session of the conference at Whites Grove, it was voted to establish a school where young men could be educated for the ministry.

No plan had been laid for receiving young women into the school as boarding students. A few who could get boarding places outside, or rooms in which they could board themselves, were received as day students. But this did not meet the demand. A boarding-hall for young women was a necessity to the school. The call of every pressing need falls on the listening ear of some benefactor. In this case Mrs. Emily Gaylord Wilson, the wife of Rev. J. G. Wilson, of Philadelphia, heard the call, and out of her own funds gave eighteen hundred dollars to be used in building a hall for young women. A lot, joining the lot on which the school-building and the house for the principal had been built, was bought, and on it "Gaylord Hall" was erected, in honor of Mrs. Gaylord Wilson.

These three buildings constituted the plant of Franklinton Christian College until March 3, 1904, when the dwelling house in which the principals had lived was destroyed by fire. The other two buildings being inadequate to the growing needs of the school, the whole property has been sold, that new buildings may be erected on a farm which has been purchased, and the school be better equipped to meet the growing demands of the present progressive age.

During the first few years of its existence, the school was under the supervision of the Department of Missions of the American Christian Convention, but at the session of the Convention held in New Bedford, Massachusetts, in 1886, it was placed in charge of a Board of Control, consisting of five members, who are elected by the Convention. This Board elects the principal of the school, and the principal chooses his assistant teachers, subject to the approval of the Board of Control. The following principals have been at the head of this institution of learning:

Rev. George Young, of New York, from the autumn of 1879 to May 8, 1889.

Rev. Charles Beck, Pennsylvania, from August 8, 1889 to July 17, 1890.

Rev. J. F. Ullery, of Ohio, from September 16, 1890, to May 5, 1891.

Rev. N. Del McReynolds, of Ohio, from May 5, 1891, to June 2, 1897.

Rev. Zenas A. Poste, of New York, from October 12, 1897, to April 6, 1904.

Rev. Henry E. Long, of North Carolina, from October, 1904, to the present time, and still in charge.

It would be impossible to tell the good results that have come to the colored people from the work done at Franklinton Christian College. More than a thousand young men, young women, and children have come into touch with its uplifting influence, and gone away with new ideals of what life should be. Qualified by the intellectual and moral training they received at this college, hundreds of young men and women are doing their work to-day with the courage and fidelity that bring success. Graduates from Franklinton are classed with the best teachers in the colored schools of North Carolina and Virginia. Most of the colored Christian churches have pastors who have been students at Franklinton. Franklinton is represented in the dentistry of one of the leading cities of the country, and the medical profession will soon be honored by one of her brightest young men. To the industrial arts, including the art of housekeeping, young men and young women are contributing better services because of the training they received at Franklinton.

On the farm, a little north from the village of Franklinton and on the highest elevation of the farm, and near the center of several acres of pine forest, the new building is located.

The new Franklinton will accommodate a hundred boarding students, and twice that number of day students.

The entire property is owned, and the school controlled, by the American Christian Convention.

KIRTON HALL

Some years ago a number of earnest brethren met in Albany, N. Y., to look into the question of student equipment and pastoral supply for the territory of New England, New York State, and Canada. It was there decided to establish a "colony" of students at Kingston, Ont. Later the movement assumed definite form at McMaster University, Toronto. In September, 1909 the undersigned resigned the Professorship of French Language and Literature in that institution and began the agitation of an educational enterprise that would be entirely our own. In 1911 the Ontario Conference came into possession of a legacy from the estate of Brother Richard Kirton, of Newmarket. Previously they had received $500 from Bro. W. W. Trull, of Orano, for many years the treasurer of conference. Other friends have given and promised help and support and the conference purchased a fine residential property one square from the Bathurst Street Christian Church in Toronto.

Students considered worthy receive generous terms as to tuition, rooms, board, and all the usual advantages found in a good Students' Home. This property has been named Kirton Hall and on the evening of November 12, 1912, it was formally declared open, Dr. J. J. Summerbell, of Dayton, Ohio, giving the principal address. It is intended that this enterprise shall develop logically and it is in no sense merely a Canadian affair. It will help New York State and New England and students from any section of our Zion will be welcomed.

THE DEPARTMENT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOLS

THE Sunday-school is the greatest auxiliary organization for the education and evangelization of the children of this generation that the Church has ever instituted. It not only takes the child under the influence and protection of church life, but it guides it in the development of Christian character in the adolescent period, it throws a safeguard about manhood and womanhood in the strenuous years of stress and strain and temptation, and brings the richest comfort and consolation to the Christian pilgrim as he nears the end of life's journey.

The growth of this mighty movement has been marvelous. North America alone now claims 15,000,000 students enrolled in this army, 1,670,846 officers and teachers are devoting their consecrated services to this work, 173,459 Sunday-schools are engaged in this marvelous work in our own country. Through this organization the Bible is being read and studied as never before; cities are being organized, and the country is being flooded with literature that illuminates the teachings of the sacred Scriptures.

Modern methods are being introduced into every department of Sunday-school work throughout the world, and the best and brightest talent in teaching, speaking, writing, and organization have simply revolutionized this world-wide agency whose purpose is to inspire, instruct, and develop the spirit of man with the teachings of the Spirit of God through the teaching of the Bible. The convention idea has so taken hold of the Sunday-school workers of the world, and the work has grown in such proportions that some convention is almost always in session, studying better methods of Sunday-school work. This work has reached every quarter of the globe and every country where the Church of Christ is organized, the Sunday-school finds a place as a mighty factor in building up the Church.

Since it is a recognized fact that this organization is accomplishing such wonderful things for the advancement of God's kingdom and the progress of the Church, and since the most progressive and influential schools are those that have made a study of the most improved methods of organization, we would make an earnest appeal to the Sunday-school officers and teachers in the Sunday-schools of our Christian Church to give earnest attention to the best methods of organization and instruction in the schools of the Church. The growth of the Church will largely be determined by the work done in the Sunday-schools in the training of the young.

As a standard for front-line Sunday-schools of the Christian Church, we would name the following points of efficiency:

I. The Sunday-school Open All the Year.

Every school should strive for this standard, for there is no time at which the powers of temptation are more strongly at work than when the Sunday-school is in winter quarters. Make the school so attractive, the place of meeting so comfortable, and the lessons so helpful that no excuse can be found for closing.

II. The Bible Used in Class Session in All Grades Over the Primary.

This can be easily accomplished by having the school to supply the Bibles, or by requesting the students to make a showing of Bibles at each session. We should emphasize the idea that the Sunday-schools are Bible-schools. We should magnify the sacredness and value of the Bible as the Book of God.

III. An Active Cradle Roll.

If the schools will enroll the infants while they are too young to attend the school, when they reach the age to attend there will be little trouble to get the hearty support and attendance of the child and the parents.

IV. A Working Home Department.

This department should seek to carry the benefits of the school to those who are unable to attend. It will be a mighty blessing to those who are kept in on account of inability to attend, and will help to create a strong sentiment for the school in the community. It will also cause many to be found who will become active members of the school.

V. A Teachers and Officers' Meeting, at Least Monthly.

Such a meeting would contribute greatly to encourage the work, to stimulate discouraged teachers, improve plans of work, and result in greater success for the school.

VI. A Teacher-Training Class, Meeting Weekly.

This is a necessity, for children and maturer people who have been taught by the most improved methods in the public schools and colleges will not be satisfied with less than the best in the Sunday-school. The best teacher in each school could conduct this class, assisted by the pastor, when he could be present.

VII. One or More Organized Bible Classes.

The Organized Bible Class has been one of the greatest agencies ever introduced to interest adults in the work of the Sunday-school. The organization is simple, but the purpose is great. The predominant idea in this work is work. Give everybody something to do, appreciate it when it is done, and find something else to be done. Undertake things worth while for the church, the pastor, the community. This will promote unselfish

Christian service which will develop unselfish Christian life and the class will grow.

VIII. Conversions and Additions to the Church During Calendar Year.

This is one of the chief aims of all Christian work. Everything should point to this one idea for those who are not saved, and training for Christian service should be the ideal for those who are saved.

IX. A Statistical Report and an Offering Annually to the Sunday-school Department of the American Christian Convention.

The great aim of such a report is to preserve our history, to accumulate information about what we are doing as a people, to make us appreciate ourselves, so that other people will be benefited by what we are doing. Such a report promotes unity among ourselves, and a people who advocates unity as we do should cultivate community of spirit and unity of purpose. The offering should be made as a means for the promotion of the Sunday-school work of the Church at large, as a medium of information for the weaker schools, and with a view of undertaking to put a Sunday-school Secretary into the field, who shall give all his time to the work.

X. Mission Study and Offerings to Home and Foreign Missions.

The missionary spirit should be cultivated in the child, stimulated in the adult, and expressed in the entire church life; and nothing would do more to make us a missionary people than systematic study of the great mission fields, their needs, their opportunities, and following up this study by systematic missionary contributions in the Sunday-school.

XI. The School Represented in Some Sunday-school Convention, or School of Methods, During Each Year.

The great international Sunday-school movement has no other purpose but to help the schools of the churches to undertake greater things and use the best methods in the promotion of the Sunday-school work. While others are pressing into these conventions and getting the best things in the Christian world in Sunday-school work, we cannot afford to neglect the improvement of our methods and keep pace with the progress of the age in which we live.

The Sunday-schools of the Church should turn the tide of childhood to the church after the Sunday-school hour, rather than send the children out on the streets, into the fields and woods, and away from the church service. The present tendency will develop a habit in the next generation to think that the church is unworthy of their presence. Many of this generation who have been sent away from church at the close of the Sunday-school hour have already acquired the habit of absenting themselves from the church that they will never outlive.

On behalf of this department, I wish to express my appreciation to the many schools in the Church that have made a statistical report to this department and contributed to the support of the department an annual offering. We will greatly appreciate it if every school in the Church will make a full and accurate statistical report annually in the month of May. We would also appreciate reports from the secretaries of the several conferences and conventions, showing what is being done throughout the brotherhood for the promotion of the Sunday-school work.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Rev. E. A. Watkins, Secretary, Albany, Missouri

THE importance of Christian Endeavor among the activities of the Church has a greater grip upon the world to-day than ever before. Consecrated, careful-thinking, Christian leaders have gradually come to appreciate, that, if we are to have efficient leadership for the Church of the future, we must train the young of to-day, before they slip from our grasp and influence. For a long time it was thought that the "training-school" feature of the movement was the only one worth while, and the one worthy of the largest consideration. But Christian Endeavor has been a developing force, reaching out into almost every department of life, and making the influence of young Christian hearts felt everywhere. Many important reforms may be traced to the efficient service rendered by a little group of consecrated young people, or to the united efforts of a number of societies in a Christian Endeavor Union. Civic righteousness in many large cities has become a sterner reality because of the constructive influence of Christian Endeavor. The Church itself has been quickened to a more practical service, both intensive and expensive, by the new life thrust into her activities by the organized young people's movement.

The "Raven of Despair" has about croaked his last "Nevermore," as far as the future of this phase of organized Christianity is concerned. It is here to stay. It has so thoroughly imbedded itself into the very life and existence of the Church, that to undertake to sever the relations existing between them would be suicidal, and, at best, run the risk of impairing the life of the Church which gave it birth. The Church that recognizes the needs of the young of to-day will be the "efficient Church" of to-morrow. It has almost grown into a "truism" that the Church that ignores the advantages of Christian Endeavor has no promise of the future.

The past has been pregnant with helpful lessons for our cause. The movement has passed through the experimental stage and has now merged into the field of concrete fact. The feasibility, practicability, workability, possibility, durability, probability, and indestructability of the Christian Endeavor Society is no longer a debatable question. Our people are waking up to the tremendous opportunities and possibilities offered in the Christian Endeavor Society. A few years ago we had over 400 societies. Then we "fell from grace" and allowed over one-half of our societies to die or starve to death. But in the last year and one-half there have been the fairest indications that we are coming back to the place we formerly occupied, singing, "We acknowledge our transgression, and our sin is ever before us." From every quarter we are having reports of the organization of new societies, and the rejuvenation of old ones. If you will study the following statistics, you will be interested to note the increase in number of societies over those reported last year. May we not reasonably hope that this is the beginning of a great movement in the Church we love to call our very own, that is a prophecy of better things and a much larger service?

OUR PUBLISHING INTERESTS

By O. W. Whitelock,

President Christian Publishing Association and Secretary for the Department of Publishing, American Christian Convention

THE past year has been one of steady business with The Christian Publishing Association. There has been nothing extraordinary happen. Several new books have been published by the Association; these are books of to the Church and are all of a high class of literature.

The first issued is the "Writings and Addresses of Austin Craig," by Martyn Summerbell, an edition of 1,000 copies.

The second important work issued is, "A History of the Christian Denomination in America," by M. T. Morrill, an edition of 1,000 copies.

The last issued is "The Kingdom of God," by Thomas Holmes, an edition of 500 copies.

"The Writings and Addresses of Austin Craig" is of high literary character. This work has been carefully compiled and arranged by Martyn Summerbell; this fact alone would commend it to all readers, but above and beyond that the commanding ability and high standing of Dr Craig insure to the public that his writings and addresses are worth reading by all our people, and by those of all denominations as well. His chapter on "Beginnings" is a masterpiece in thought and expression. He says of man: "The march of empire, or the progress of civilization, may fill the eye of the worldly historian; but to the sacred seers, man is far more than soldier or citizen. He is a being of divine origin and immortal destinies, a nature made in the image of God, ruined by his own transgression, but redeemed by the grace of his Creator." Gems like this are found throughout the chapter.

Chapter two is a "Visit to Bethlehem." The vivid description, the splendid imagery, and exalted sentiment charm the reader. What nobler sentiment or more beautiful words than these: "And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said unto the reapers, 'The Lord be with you!' And they answered him, 'The Lord bless thee!'" Oh, would that the spirit of Bethlehem might fill all the work fields of the world; that capital and labor might seek together the glory of God; that between employer and employed there might ever be such peace and good-will as spake in these harvest salutations of Bethlehem, "The Lord be with you!" "The Lord bless thee!" (page 36) or David of Bethlehem, a grandson of Ruth, beseeches God from the throne of Israel, "that our daughters may be as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace." Let woman first have the solid virtues which secure the unity and sanctity of home, then may you polish until heavenly glories and earthly graces shall shine and charm like the holy and beautiful house of Jehovah. Alas, that so much of the education of our daughters should be mere surface work; accomplishments, rather than spiritual deepening and renewing; poor ball-room graces, polish of manners often overlaying a coarse and selfish nature, as a thin veneer of rosewood is glued upon a crab-stick! (Page 37.)

The chapter throughout is inspiring and uplifting. Members of the Christian Church should read this book, for Austin Craig was one of the most brilliant of her great preachers.

The chapter upon the name "Christian" is the best argument for its divine origin of anything I have ever read or heard. After you have read this chapter you will have a higher and broader conception of the name Christian than you had before. This chapter alone is worth more than the price of the book.

The book contains twenty-four chapters and as a whole is an argumentative storehouse of knowledge coupled with gems of literature not frequently found.

"The Kingdom of God," written by Dr. Thomas Holmes, is the crowning work of his long and useful life, is one of patient research and logical argument. It is written from the view-point of "Our Father" and presents in a logical and commanding way the love of God toward His children. The first three chapters are given to "Before the Beginning—Space, Duration, God—More About God, The Beginning"

These chapters show much thought and investigation. Passages in the Bible, revelations concerning God and the Christ are discussed as being the only knowledge we have of the "beginning." The "beginning" mentioned in John and the "beginning" of Genesis do not have reference to the same point. The "beginning" in John going farther into the past than the one in Genesis.

It is interesting and inspiring to follow the author in his discussion of Christ as the first creation existing with God long before the worlds were, and that God by His Son created all things. Every lover of sublime thought should read these chapters.

The fourth chapter discusses "Creation and Evolution," is helpful and instructing. It gives a very sensible view of the harmony of science with the Bible. Every young person who is seeking after truth along these lines should study this chapter; such a study will anchor him solidly to the Word of God, so he cannot be carried away by the gusts of skepticism and infidelity which occasionally sweep over the world.

Chapter five for depth of thought is not surpassed by any other in the book. Its subject, "Man, What? and Why?" at once reveals to us the difficult questions the author has undertaken to answer. He has not settled these questions but he has thrown much light upon them. The seeker after truth cannot help but be aided by a careful study of this chapter.

The writer asserts that man is a triplex and not a duplex being, that he is soul, body, and spirit. He asserts that brutes have souls as well as men. Do not become startled at his statement, but read his presentation of argument. Hear him, follow him patiently and thoughtfully, it will do you good even if you cannot agree with him wholly or subscribe to all his theories.

He classifies beings as follows: (1) Spiritual, including God, the Son of God, angels, and saints in heaven. These are constituted of soul and spirit.

(2) The human race on earth; constituted of soul, spirit, and material body.

(3) Brutes; constituted of soul and material body.

His discussion of all these positions is well worth your while to read and consider. In discussing spirit, he says: "Divine light, and all divine influences, come to the human soul through the human spirit. God is a dynamo from which all spiritual light emanates; and the spirit of man is the burner through which that light reaches the human soul."

Other chapters are given to subjects almost as interesting and important to the searcher for truth as those I have specifically mentioned. They are:

Chapter six, "Our Father."
Seven—"Moral Agency."
Eight—"The Kingdom of God."
Nine—"Nature of this Government."
Ten—"Practical Working of God's Family Government."
Eleven—"The Great Rebellion."
Twelve—"The Fatal Choice."
Thirteen and fourteen—"Subduing the Rebellion."
Fifteen—"The Christian Era."
Sixteen—"The Son of God—The Son of Man."
Seventeen and eighteen—"Christ's Missions."
Nineteen—"Errors Corrected."
Twenty—"Saved by the Blood," and Twenty-one—"The Kingdom of Christ."

The third book, is "History of the Christian Denomination in America," written by Milo T. Morrill.

This is a logically arranged, carefully prepared history of the Christians. Brother Morrill made a great deal of original reseach in remote places for facts which he records. It is the first history of the Church that has been written, others have gathered valuable data and made compilations that have been useful and helpful, but Dr. Morrill is the first to write a carefully prepared history of the Christian Church as a denomination. Dr. Morrill has arranged his facts in such a concise manner that the book can be used as a reference work and as a text-book. Our colleges should make it a part of their course of study and every young minister should not only study it so carefully that he knows the facts the book contains, but he should be filled with the principles contended for by "the fathers," and which are in this day permeating to a greater or less degree all the Protestant churches.

Every member of the Christian Church should carefully read this history, to do so, will give them a better understanding of the important part the Christian Church has played in the religious history of the past century, not on account of the numbers organized into church fellowship, but by reason of the principles underlying the movement for greater religious liberty and the tearing down of the walls of partition which so long kept apart the various groups of the followers of Christ.

The books published during the year with many others in former years by The Christian Publishing Association have been published to give more knowledge and to educate the people along lines which make for the highest and best citizenship in the world. These books can do but little good if they remain in the publishing house, they must be read to be of use to the world. Buy these books and read them and you will be helped and through you the world will be brought to a higher plain of living, not to the mountain top of transfiguration, but into the plain of usefulness to humanity.

In addition to the books named in this article, during the past year 1,000 copies of the CHRISTIAN ANNUAL was published and substantially all sold.

There has been printed and distributed 5,000 copies of "Religion in the Home;" 3,000 copies of "Divine Law on Giving;" 15,000 copies "Origins and Principles of the Christians," by M. Summerbell; 5,000 copies "Christian Union;" 20,000 copies church literature: 5,000 copies "Christians and Disciples," and 5,000 copies "A Letter from Jedekiah."

Our Sunday-school literature has been taken by almost all of our schools, but a few patronize other book houses. We desire to commend our people for their loyalty to our own publications, but there is yet room for improvement. The graded lessons are being used by more of our schools than ever before, but not in sufficient numbers to justify an edition with our own publishing house imprint.

The Officers and Teachers Journal, for Sunday-school teachers and officers, has been greatly improved, and should be taken by all of our schools and placed in the hands of all our Sunday-school officers and teachers. So far, this publication has not paid expense of publishing, but we hope our schools will soon make it possible to not only continue the publication, but enable the house to improve it and make it more helpful to our Sunday-school workers.

The Herald of Gospel Liberty has been kept at a standard of excellence by our worthy editor, Dr. J. P. Barrett. A greater number of our Church fellowship should read its pages that they might know more about our Church and what it is doing. A larger circulation for this paper would be helpful to the Church in every way. We urge our pastors and ministers to send to our Agent, Mr. Netum Rathbun, for samples of the paper. Each minister of the Christians should be an active agent for the greater circulation of our denominational paper.

The Christian Sun, published at Elon College, continues to serve the people of the Southern Christian Convention and The Christian Vanguard the members of the Ontario, Canada, Christian Conference. Each of these papers helps very materially the cause of the Church in its respective field of influence.

The News-Letter, a local publication in Illinois, continues to serve our Church in that State and is no doubt of interest and help to the churches in Illinois.

On the whole, the past year has been one of progress and stability in publishing lines. A greater patronage by our people would enable The Christian Publishing Association, as the servant of the Church, to do more for our cause by scattering good literature and make it possible for it to be of greater service in the vineyard of our Lord than ever before.

We hope that all our people will join with us in building up our beloved Zion and extending its beneficent influences "to the uttermost parts of the earth."

THE CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION

The Christian Publishing Association is owned and controlled by the Christian churches represented in the American Christian Convention.

The trustees of the Association are elected by the Convention at the quadrennial session, and they secure a Publishing Agent, who conducts the business.

Netum Rathbun was employed as Agent at the meeting of the trustees in January, 1911, and took charge of the business in April following. Under his management the business is steadily growing, and he has been enabled to make many improvements and to pay off the $4,000.00 indebtedness against the building, thus freeing the Association from debt, except for current bills not matured. The value of the Dayton property is carried on the books of the Association at $100,000.00, and doubtless considerably more could be realized were it for sale.

Netum Rathbun

A. F. Chase

Equipment, stock, and two lots in Duluth, Minnesota, add nearly half as much more to the value as the lot and building in Dayton. The circulation, or disposing of the publications of the House is entrusted to the Publishing Agent. Mr. Rathbun says that he wishes he had the power to sufficiently impress upon our people as to lead to action, that the church paper is one thing we could not well do without, and ought therefore to go regularly into every household of our membership—not primarily so much for the revenue it would bring the—your—Publishing House, so much as for the good and benefit it would be to the readers, and our Church at large.

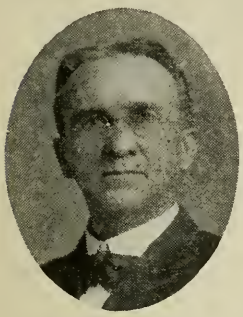
More good books have been printed during the present administration than any other similar period previous. There have been issued: "Children's Missionary Stories," by Alice Moreton Burnett, $.35; "Writings and Addresses of Austin Craig," edited by Martyn Summerbell, D. D., $1.50; "A History of the Christian Denomination in America," by Milo True Morrill, D. D., $1.50; "The Kingdom of God," by Thomas Holmes, D. D., $1.25, and a number of tracts for general distribution.

Among the necessary adjuncts to the business, mention should be made of Albert F. Chase, the bookkeeper, whose faithful, efficient services seem quite indispensable to the management. In fact, from the janitor up to the Agent, the business was never blessed with more capable or painstaking employees.

THE HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY

The Herald of Gospel Liberty was founded by Rev. Elias Smith, at Portsmouth, New Hampshire, the first issue bearing date, September 1, 1808.

The first subscription list included two hundred and seventy-four names, and carried the paper into almost every State of the Union. Within seven years the subscription list went up to nearly fifteen hundred.



J. P. Barrett

The present subscription list carries the paper into nearly six thousand homes.

The following names and dates include the editors of the paper and their terms of service. In most cases the first-named person was the editor-in-chief and the other persons named were his associates. This arrangement is taken from the "History of the Christian Denomination in America," by Rev. Milo True Morrill, D. D.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITERATURE

Although our people were the first to publish a religious church paper, they were not the first to introduce Sunday-school literature into the Sunday-schools. The Sunday School Herald was started in 1865, under the editorship of H. Y. Rush, and Number 1, Volume 1 bears date, November, 1865. The paper was a semi-monthly at first, and published by The Western Christian Book Association. Under Dr. Watson's editorship the paper became a weekly, The Sunday School Herald alternating with Glad Tidings, which was later dropped, and The Sunday School Herald became a weekly as we now have it.

S. Q. Helfenstein

What is now The Junior Herald was begun under the title, Little Teacher, and was edited by A. W. Coan. Volume 1, Number 1 bears the date, October 2, 1881. Each number contained the Sunday-school lesson and "Talks About the Lesson." This feature is continued in The Junior Herald, which is an enlargement of The Little Teacher, and was first issued July 1, 1906, Dr. J. P. Watson, editor. Instead of "Talks About the Lesson," Dr. Watson gave "The Lesson Story."

January 1, 1882, appeared our first Sunday-school quarterly. It was edited by A. W. Coan, under the title, Our Teacher's Guide and Scholar's Help.

The quarterly was continued under this title two years, when it was changed and the first number of 1885 appeared as Bible Class Quarterly for advanced scholars. On the cover of the third quarter the name, C. J. Jones, is found, who became editor after the death of A. W. Coan. In 1884, the Intermediate Quarterly was begun, to meet the needs of scholars between the primary and the adult classes. In 1909, The Junior Quarterly was issued, under the editorship of S. Q. Helfenstein, who succeeded Dr. J. P. Watson, in 1907. In 1911, The Sunday-school Teachers and Officers Journal was first issued, edited by Hermon Eldredge.

THE TEACHERS AND OFFICERS JOURNAL

The publication of a Sunday-school Teachers and Officers Journal by The Christian Publishing Association was proposed at the quadrennial meeting of the American Christian Convention at Troy, Ohio, in October, 1910, and was endorsed by the action of that body.

Hermon Eldredge

The Board of Trustees of the Christian Publishing Association, at their annual meeting the following January (1911), acted favorably on this recommendation of the Convention, and authorized the publication of such a magazine and elected Mr. Hermon Eldredge, of Erie, Pa., as editor.

The first issue of the Journal was in July, of 1911, and contained, aside from its editorial articles, a greeting from Marion Lawrance, secretary of the World's Sunday-school Association, articles on the several departments of Sunday-school work, principles, and methods, together with news from the Sunday-school world, and comment on the International Uniform Lesson for the current quarter.

It was voted by the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association to give the magazine a wide introduction to our Sunday-school workers by issuing ten thousand free copies of the initial number, but the postal regulations which require a proportionate subscription list made this impossible, and instead of this action, the Publishing Agent, Mr. Rathbun, has gradually, but continually, issued free sample copies to all our schools, to introduce the magazine to the widest circle of workers. The Christian Publishing Association deserves the commendation and support of our people for their vision and loyalty in thus taking this forward step in issuing a magazine which means a present financial loss; their action being based on the call of their brethren as expressed through their action in the American Christian Convention.

The present aim of the Journal and the Sunday-school Committee is to present a definite "Front-Line" goal of attainment to the Sunday-schools of the Christian Church, and to assist them in attaining this position. The "Front-Line" (January) number of the Journal should be in the hands of every pastor and officer and teacher of every Sunday-school of the Christian Church, east, west, south, and north, including Canada, Porto Rico, and Japan, as we generally agree that we have no more important work than the religious education of our people, young and old, and we will not go far along any line until we heed the words of Moses, the man of God, to

"Gather the people together,"
"Men, and women, and children,"
"And thy stranger that is within thy gates,"
"That they may HEAR,"
"And that they may LEARN,"
"And FEAR the Lord your God,"
"And observe to DO all the words of this law."—Deut. 31:12.

THE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY

The American Christian Convention, in session at Marion, Indiana, October, 1890, passed the following resolution, which had been submitted by the Committee on Missions:

We also recommend that the Secretary for Missions be authorized and instructed to edit and publish a paper to be devoted to the interests of the mission work; but if this is not deemed practicable, that one number of the monthly Sunday-school Herald be made a missionary number.

M. T. Morrill

O. W. Powers

At this session of the Convention Rev. J. G. Bishop was elected secretary for the Department of Missions—Home and Foreign—who did not see his way clear to publish such a paper until the year 1894, but in October of that year he did publish a sixteen-page monthly magazine devoted to the home and foreign mission work of the Church, and which from then until now has continued its monthly visits to the homes of our people, reaching to-day no less than 2,000 Christian homes.

At the first, Doctor Bishop was both editor and publisher, and with the exception of two years, when Rev. Alva M. Kerr was publisher, he carried the work of both editor and publisher for twelve years, afterward serving as publisher for two years under the present editorial management.

Since October, 1906, Rev. Milo T. Morrill, D. D., and Rev. Oliver W. Powers, D. D., have been the editors, and for the past four years, Rev. Doctor Morrill has been the publisher.

THE CHRISTIAN ANNUAL

The Christian Register and Almanac was published in 1821.

In addition to the almanac features, it contained valuable information concerning the churches and preachers of the Christians in the United States.

The Christian Register and Almanac was issued in the following-named years: 1821, 1823, 1824, 1825, 1827, 1836, 1841, 1842, 1849, 1852. The writer has in his possession a copy of the issue of 1849.

After the Christian Register and Almanac was discontinued, the Christian Almanac was published throughout the years from 1872 to 1881. Then came the Christian Year Book and Almanac from 1882 to 1891, and then came the Christian Year Book up to and including 1896 and after that the CHRISTIAN ANNUAL.

J. F. Burnett . .

That the reader may have a connected history of this yearly publication, we quote from CHRISTIAN ANNUAL of 1912:

The first ANNUAL published by the Christians was edited and compiled by B. M. Stoddard in 1897. The title was THE CHRISTIAN'S ANNUAL.

The publication bears the imprint of The Christian Publishing Association with B. M. Stoddard as agent for the years 1897, 1898, and 1899. For the year 1900 it bears the imprint of The Christian Publishing Association without naming any one as editor. The year 1901 was without issue, the Agent getting out an enlarged edition of The Herald, which contained all the information, statistics, and references usually found in the ANNUAL. This year Rev. W. D. Samuel was Agent for the Association. For the years 1902, 1903, 1904, the imprint is that of The Christian Publishing Association, with J. N. Hess, Agent.

For the years 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, the publication bears the name of Rev. Henry Crampton as editor, and for 1912 and 1913, the name of J. F. Burnett.

THE CHRISTIAN VANGUARD

The Christian Vanguard is the successor to one or more efforts of the brethren in Ontario, Canada, to sustain a local church paper.

The first of these efforts was in 1845, when the Christian Luminary was published at Oshawa. In 1866 the Christian Magazine was published at Eddystone.

In January, 1890, the Christian Magazine, now The Christian Vanguard, made its appearance with Elder Thomas Garbut as editor-in-chief and Prof. John N. Dales associate editor.

J. N. Dales

At the session of the conference held at Newmarket, Ontario, in 1899, it was made a semi-monthly publication, and its name changed to The Christian Vanguard.

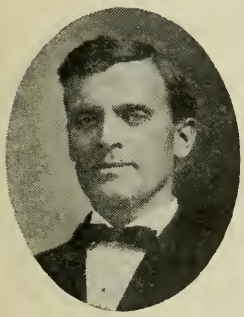
The publication is now the property of the Ontario Christian Conference, the Board of Control being the Executive of the conference.

Prof. John N. Dales, D. D., is the present editor and Mr. C. J. St. John the business manager.

When first elected editor, Professor Dales had associated with him, as "Associate Editor," Rev. W. G. Sargent, B. A., D. D., now of Providence, R. I. Its enterprising and wide-awake editor says: "It has safely passed the experimental stages of childhood and youth, and is now pressing forward to sturdy manhood, and it has always striven to represent the wishes and opinions of conference, as well as to be a pioneer for Forward Movements."

THE CHRISTIAN SUN

The Christian Sun arose on the morning of January 17, 1844, at Junto, North Carolina. Its founder and first editor was Elder Daniel W. Kerr, and Dennis Heart, of Hillsboro, North Carolina, the most famous publisher then living in the State—its first printer. It was at the first a monthly paper and published at one dollar a year. It is now published weekly and reaches 2,700 homes of the Christians. The Sun has continued to shine with the exception of the years 1864-1866 from then until now. Its first editor worked without pay, earning a livelihood by teaching and preaching, and gladly gave his spare time to the paper without cost to its readers.



J. O. Atkinson

. The paper is now owned and controlled by the Southern Christian Convention, which body elects its editor and publisher once in two years. The present editor and publisher is Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., who has served continuously since May, 1900.

The editors and their terms of office, as given by Milo T. Morrill, in the "History of the Christian Denomination in America," are: D. W. Kerr, 1844-1850; H. B. Hays, 1850-1854; W. B. Wellons, 1854-1876; J. T. Whitley, 1876-1878; J. P. Barrett, 1878-1881; W. T. Walker, 1881-1882; J. P. Barrett, 1882-1891; W. G. Clements, 1891-1894; E. L. Moffitt, 1894-1898; J. O. Atkinson, 1898—.

THE CHRISTIAN NEWS-LETTER

The first issue of the Christian News-Letter was published by Rev. R. J. Ellis, June 1, 1910. Brother Ellis was its founder, and continued as editor until October 1, 1912. The present editor is Mr. J. A. Cleavelin, Grayville, Ill. Under its first editorship it was published from Flora, Ill.

The Christian News-Letter was called forth in response to what seemed a very strong demand for an Illinois State paper. The necessity for such a paper had been urgently advocated by a number of our Illinois brethren for some time, so Bro. Ellis nerved and encourged by the apparent wish of the brethren of his State, set himself to the task to publish and edit a paper to meet their demand.

J. A. Cleavelin

From a financial consideration, the Christian News-Letter has not been a success, for it has never but a little more than paid the expense of its publication. It has been kept in existence largely by the personal effort and sacrifices of its former editor.

At present the Christian News-Letter is being published as a semi-monthly. Its present editor hopes, with the hearty cooperation of the Illinois brotherhood, to make it a strong and helpful factor in building up the work of the State organization. It is being published at the nominal price of fifty cents a year.

UNCLASSIFIED MATTER

THE FEDERAL COUNCIL

By President Martyn Summerbell, D. D., Lakemont, N. Y.

THE Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America is an organization of thirty Christian denominations, which are federated together to indicate their substantial unity in the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ, and to promote their greater efficiency in the Master's service. The movement has come about through the outgrowth of the fraternal spirit shown by ministers and Christian laymen, who joined together to carry out some special work for the kingdom, such as the distribution of Bibles through the American Bible Society; the organization of Sunday-schools in waste places through the American Sunday-school Union; the caring for young men away from home through the Young Men's Christian Associations; the manifestation of the unity of the churches through the Evangelical Alliance, and the bringing of the young people of the churches into more active and continuous service through the Christian Endeavor societies. In all these agencies, however, the ministers and laymen acted on their individual responsibility, while the denominations themselves still remained in splendid isolation. But the benefits resulting from united effort became so self-evident that presently the denominations were roused to emulation. As a result of the Interdenominational Church Conference, held in New York in 1905, the denominations themselves accepted a basis of Federation and appointed delegates to meet in Philadelphia, in December of 1908. These delegates organized the first regular Council of the Federated Churches, and so the organization becomes the official representative of Protestant Christianity in the Western World. The second Council met in Chicago, beginning December 3, 1912.

The work so far achieved by the Federal Council has been the bringing of the leaders of the various denominations into closer touch and sympathy; the organizing of State and local Federations, a marked advance which has taken place in 1912; the institution of social surveys, in which an accurate study has been made of religious and social conditions, and which have given the churches better understanding of the problems which they have to meet; the publication of numerous reports and addresses on Sabbath Observance, the Family Life, the Church and Organized Labor, International Peace, and the bringing the churches as a single force to press certain needed reforms, such as the suppression of race-track gambling, and the better treatment of its Jewish subjects by the Russian Government. In all these concerns the Federal Council has had an opportunity to exert a powerful influence for righteousness—an influence which the denominations, acting singly, could never have equalled. The efforts which it is now employing to make the churches a larger factor in social service would alone justify the organization of the Council, and this is but one of its many channels of activity. Our own denomination has been associated with the movement from its earliest stages, and was represented in Philadelphia, in 1908, by twelve of its foremost leaders. It was also represented in Chicago this past December.

The officers of the Council are:—

NOTE.—The second meeting of the Federal Council of The Churches of Christ in America was held in Chicago, December 4-9, 1912. Twenty-eight of the denominations composing the Council were represented by 322 delegates. The delegations representing the Christians as finally made up consisted of O. W. Powers, Chairman, J. P. Barrett, W. W. Staley, M. T. Morrill, and J. F. Burnett. The meeting of the Council was preceded by conferences on Social Service, State and Local Federations, and Theological Seminaries. The following officers were chosen for four years:

President, Rev. Professor Shailer Mathews, D. D., Chicago.

Secretary, Rev. Charles S. Macfarland, Ph. D., New York.

Recording Secretary, Rev. Rivington D. Lord, D. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Honorary Secretary, Rev. E. B. Sanford, D. D., New York.

Treasurer, Mr. Alfred R. Kimball, New York.

Chairman Executive Committee, Rev. Frank Mason North, D. D., New York.

Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., LL. D., was made Vice-President for the Christian Church. Martyn Summerbell, D. D., LL. D., Lakemont, New York, and O. W. Powers, D. D., Dayton, Ohio, were made members of the Executive Committee, and Hermon Eldredge, Erie, Pa., and W. A. Harper, M. A., LL. D., Elon College, N. C., Alternates. Reports were made by the Standing Committees on Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Family Life, Sunday Observance, Temperance, Literature and Education, and Evangelism, and by the Special Committee on Week Day Religious Instruction, and the Commissions on Social Service and International Peace and Arbitration. A new Commission was created on State and Local Federations. The Executive Committee was enlarged, and was directed to call a special session of the Council in 1914, if in its judgment the work of the Council would be advanced thereby. Each denomination represented was urged to make a contribution to the expenses of the Council equal to one dollar for each one thousand members. This would be about $100.00 for the Christian Church. The reports of the officers and commissions for the four years indicated a widening field and a growing sense of solidarity among the denominations represented in the Council, while the plans for the future disclosed a broad outlook and a realization of the statesmanship demanded by the affairs of the Kingdom of God.

THE AGED MINISTERS' HOME

By Rev. John MacCalman, D. D. Secretary

PERHAPS there is no institution among us that should have more and better care than the Aged Christian Ministers' Home. When the servants of God give their whole lives to His work, for the benefit of our people, and give themselves so unselfishly and so devotedly that they fail to make provision for their own old age, we, as a people, should make their few remaining years happy, so far as material comforts go. This is the aim of those in charge of the Aged Christian Ministers' Home.

The location of the home is ideal for beauty; the house itself is commodious; the care as good as our resources allow. Mrs. Allen looks after the comfort of the guests with motherly care, and the trustees do what they can to make the sojourn of the aged servants of God comfortable. A few bequests of fair size would enable the trustees to do things now beyond their reach, and the treasurer will gladly receive large or small gifts.

The spiritual atmosphere of the home is beautiful. The inmates are sincere, devoted children of God. They have given Him their best service through long lives, in India; in the frontier warfare of Missouri and Kansas; in country and city; in church and college, and in authorship. Their intercourse with God has given them a culture beyond the power of the world to confer.

Those living in the home at present are: Rev. and Mrs. E. C. B. Hallam, Rev. J. J. Hillman, Rev. Thomas Holmes, and the matron and her honored husband, Rev. and Mrs. Alden Allen. The president, Rev. J. W. Wilson, Jamestown, N. Y., will respond to any call made on him in behalf of the home, and the treasurer, Mr. James S. Frost, Lakemont, N. Y., will explain the financial needs and conditions of the home to any interested friends.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN JAPAN

The following communication has been addressed to our Christian Brotherhood through the American Christian Convention:

As already stated in THE HERALD columns the Quarter-Century Anniversary of the Christian Church in Japan, will be held at Ishinomaki in the earlier half of the year 1913, (the exact date to be announced in the near future).

Acting for the church and by its appointment the undersigned committee hereby extends a general invitation to the Christian Church in America, Canada, and Porto Rico to be represented at this Anniversary by a committee of five or more represenatives. The unselfish interest of the church in sending to us the gospel message; the long-continued devotion to the work in Japan manifested in the financial support given, the spiritual encouragement afforded through these twenty-five years of cooperation, have so won our gratitude as to make us long to meet our benefactors face to face, and commune with them heart to heart. But your name is "legion" and we are well aware of the impossibility of this.

But we hereby urge that you will choose a representative committee of men and women, brothers and sisters in the Lord Jesus Christ, and send them to us that by their presence and counsel at this crisis in our history we may be the more firmly rooted and grounded in the faith and encouraged for the larger work still before us.

Yours for the Church.

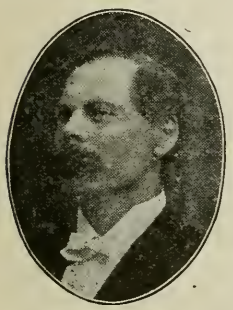
ALL IS WELL THAT ENDS WELL

A Seeming and a Reality

By Rev. R. H. Gott, Kokomo, Ind.

THE official board of a certain district conference, after much consideration, proposed the inauguration of a campaign in the city of Bland, for the establishment of a Christian church. A generous allowance, financially, as a campaign fund, was voted, a competent evangelist had been selected, and an auditorium, centrally located, was secured. The evangelist was created head of publicity bureau, the daily press was to be utilized, and also to be reinforced by handbills and placards, all specifically calling attention to the new movement, for it was deemed imperative to establish a church free from ritualism and creedism in the city, where sectarianism abounded.



R. H. Gott

The city press gave generous space to the advertisement of the meetings, and commented favorably on the movement, principles to be presented, and the seeming courtesy, geniality, versatility, and spirituality of the evangelist in charge.

The placards, placed in principal windows of the downtown business houses, attracted unusual attention because of information given. In orderly succession six fundamental principles were presented:

PRINCIPLES OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

1. The Holy Bible, our rule of faith and practice.
2. The Lord Jesus Christ, the Head of the Church.
3. Christian, the only name for His followers.
4. Christian character, the test of fellowship.
5. Private judgment, the right and duty of all.
6. The union of all the followers of Christ.

The large and influential class of citizens, who had hitherto refrained from active affiliation with the churches already established in their midst, because of their dogmatic interpretations of Scripture, were particularly pleased and impressed with the seeming fairness and worth of the principles so conspicuously set forth as the polity of the new organization. Especially did principles four and five meet their approbation.

In its last analysis, said they, Christian character is the only true test of discipleship, or Christianity, that should or could be required by any religious organization.

"Private judgment, the right and duty of all." Giordana Bruno, February 17, A. D. 1600, in the city of Rome, was burned at the stake for his contention for the right of private judgment. The world, in appreciation for his services in his bold stand for this God-given right, has long since caused to be erected to his memory, on the spot where he died, a marble shaft commemorating his heroism.

Strange, thought the people, that no religious organization had ever incorporated that kind of a plank in their platform of principles. But there it was on that placard, standing out in bold relief. The people endorsed it, and said, truly the new church will revolutionize men and creeds in this city.

Night after night the auditorium was crowded with eager, attentive auditors to hear the evangelist expound the Word of God in keeping with His platform of principles. Numerous times he called attention to the utter hopelessness of unifying the people in the observance of ordinances, because of such conflict of opinion regarding their exact meaning and worth in the Christian system. But conflicting opinions in this regard were no barrier to membership in the proposed new organization—Christian character alone being the only test of fellowship. The evangelist was teaching the people to:

> "Think for thyself, one thought but known to be thine own,
> Is worth a thousand gleaned from fields by others sown."

At the close of the evening service the evangelist gave the formula for the public reception of members into his church. He began as follows: "We have no creed or confession of faith aside from the Bible, the Word of God. We invite our converts to make it the guide of their lives, study carefully its contents under the illuminating power of the Holy Spirit, and as you understand and comprehend its teachings, so you candidly and conscientiously obey it."

The people were delighted with the plan, and, of course, reasoned within themselves, saying: "Now, whatever is necessary for us to do, according to our judgment, and in the event we should require assistance, of course, we can rely on the evangelist to render the same."

The pastors of the old and well-established churches of the city, together with their members, supporters, and friends, wondered whereunto the new movement would lead. It soon began to be whispered around among them that the evangelist was not truly orthodox, that the people whom he represented were Unitarians, and did not believe in the deity of Jesus Christ. And, furthermore, at best they lacked coherence, as the result of believing everything in general, and nothing in particular.

But that particular plank in the platform of principles: "Private judgment, the right and duty of all," loomed large in the eyes and estimation of the ever-increasingly large audiences, which sat spellbound under the magnetic influence and words of the evangelist.

The most prominent people in the city signalized their assent by giving their hands to the evangelist for fellowship in the new organization. The special evangelistic services closed with more than half a hundred names enrolled as members of the new church in the city of Bland. Initial steps were taken for securing a permanent temple of worship, the very best was felt not to be too good for such splendid people, actuated by such splendid principles.

Christian character being the only test of fellowship, they were, of course, entirely free to engage in the observance of the ordinances of baptism and communion, each one, as they conscientiously understood the Scripture to teach, so they were to observe and obey. Four splendid representative gentlemen, members from among the new converts, sought the evangelist that they might be permitted to carry out their sincere convictions in the new organization.

The first gentleman to speak began in this wise: "I have heard your discourses with pleasure, they have profoundly moved me. For years I have refrained from seeking membership in the city of Bland because of my conviction that formal ceremonies had been abolished. For my position I respectfully refer you to Colossians, second chapter, section fourteen."

Said the evangelist: "That is no barrier to your membership among us as a people."

The second gentleman addressed himself to the evangelist as follows: "I am delighted with the success that has crowned your efforts, and am happy to enjoy the communion and fellowship of those comprising the new church. With a new zest I have perused the sacred oracles, and have been wonderfully impressed with the words of our Lord in His great commission, Matt. 28:19, and desire that you baptize me by immersion at your earliest convenience."

Pleasantly the evangelist replied: "I am most grateful for your kindly words of appreciation. As the Lord's servant I have humbly tried to do my whole duty, and at the earliest possible moment shall be pleased to administer to you the ordinance of baptism as you have elected."

The two brethren who had not yet spoken held a brief conference, when it was decided that one should speak for both of them.

"We, with others, have been edified and instructed as the result of your special efforts in this city, under influence of the Holy Spirit have been brought into covenant relation with the great Head of the Church, and desire to glorify Him in our bodies and spirits which belong to Him. At your earnest suggestion and entreaty, we have studied the Word with care and discretion, and are led to the conviction that we need to more fully dedicate and consecrate our lives to the service of Christ and the Church, and this we desire to do by the formal ceremony of baptism by sprinkling, and pouring at the altar where we found Jesus so precious to our souls."

For a moment the stillness was painful. Finally the evangelist made reply:

"It is your privilege, as well as your duty, as members of the Christian Church, to exercise your prerogative in the matter of mode in your baptism, but as for me, I cannot consent to administer the ordinance in any manner save that of immersion. I shall be really glad, however, to call the pastor of the Presbyterian church to my assistance in the administration of the ordinance for you."

With one accord the two brethren spake: "Sir, we do not understand you. We took it for granted from your preaching, that should it ever be necessary for us to engage in any service needing an assistant, we could depend on you. We do not understand your statement."

The evangelist undertook to explain more fully, and when he had ceased, with one accord the two brethren made reply:

"Yes, we now understand. You have come to us with a platform of splendid principles and without reservation have emphasized again and again. You stated you had no creed, written nor implied, but was the representative of a Church whose distinctive feature is the right of 'private judgment.' We now understand, your principles are all right, they are still in advance of you, that is to say, you have not yet reached the point where they can be fully exemplified without the aid of your Presbyterian brethren. We do not care to accuse you of insincerity, nor with ignorance, but it does to us savor of inconsistency. Under the circumstances you will please excuse us from further affiliation with you and your movement. If it is necessary for us to have the assistance of a Presbyterian clergyman, we will place our membership with the Presbyterian congregation. Ere we part, permit us to tender you a gentle admonition: Should you again venture into a new field, as you have so recently in the city of Bland, be more explicit in your public statements, if you have any mental reservations, be sure to announce them, and do not permit others, as have we, by inference to become humiliated and at the last moment to be compelled to withdraw our support and influence."

The world moves on, the people are progressive, and not far out in the future it will be impossible to duplicate the experience of that particular evangelist in the city of Bland.

THE XENIA CHRISTIAN CHURCH

WHAT is now the Christian church of Xenia, Ohio, and also the Peoples Colored Christian Conference, is the outcome of a work begun and carried on by Rev. Wm. Williams, among the colored people of that city.

The church was formally organized April 13, 1909. It had fifteen (15) charter members, and now has an enrollment of fifty-two (52). There are in its membership the following-named ministers, the first four being regularly ordained elders, and the two last licentiates.

Rev. William Williams, pastor, 918 E. Second St., Xenia, Ohio.
Rev. J. F. Honaker, 910 E. Market St., Xenia, Ohio.
Rev. A. A. Gwynn, 61 Orchard St., Xenia, Ohio.
Rev. John Byrd, 31 North St., Xenia, Ohio.
James Neeley.
Isaac Layerd.

On September 16, 1909, a conference was organized and incorporated, to be known as the Peoples Colored Christian Conference. The following-named persons constitute the officers, and incorporators:

Rev. Wm. Williams, Xenia, Ohio—president.
Rev. J. E. Honaker, Xenia, Ohio—secretary.
Thomas Enoch, Xenia, Ohio—treasurer.

Executive Board—Rev. William Williams, Rev. John Byrd, Rev. A. A. Gwynn.

Incorporators—William Williams, J. F. Honaker, John Byrd, Thomas Enoch, Thomas Ware, John Crawford.

Rev. Mr. Williams was ordained a member of the North Carolina Christian Conference (colored), the ordination taking place at the Christian Biblical Institute in 1888, at which time he was a student in that institution. Beginning with 1889, he was president of the North Carolina Christian Conference for five years. He organized, besides the church in Xenia, Ohio, the following-named churches in North Carolina: Blossom Grove, Maple Temple, St. Luke, and Bishop Temple, Greensboro, N. C.

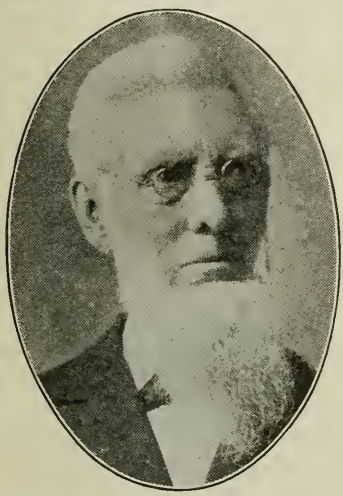
It has been voted by the church that the mission in Xenia should be known as the "J. B. Weston Christian Temple." Services are now held in the home of the pastor, and from the first the financial side of the undertaking has been borne by him, aided by free-will offerings from the people when they gather for worship.

REV. THOMAS HOLMES, LL. D.

By Rev. John MacCalman, D. D.

ONE of the signs which mark a great people is an appreciation of the men who have served them well. Such appreciation is due to Rev. Thomas Holmes.

He was born in Royalton, N. Y., Nov. 24, 1817. At the age of fourteen he was baptized and joined the Christian church at Milton, N. Y. In 1841, he entered Oberlin College, graduating from the college in 1847, and from the Theological Seminary in 1850. He was ordained at Sheffield, Ohio, Nov. 3, 1844. In 1847, he married his classmate, Miss Lettice Smith, with whom he trod life's journey for sixty-four years.



Thomas Holmes

In 1850, Dr. Holmes went to Portsmouth, N. H., as pastor, where he spent three very successful and happy years. He was then called to be Professor of Greek in Antioch College, in 1853. After some years he went to Europe for a course of study, and on his return he went back to his old charge in Portsmouth, N. H., as pastor. In 1861, he became pastor of the Franklin Street, Fall River, church, and remained till Union Christian College insisted on his acceptance of the presidency, in 1865. His strong influence was at once felt among the students, and as he acted as pastor also, he was better able to instill a higher standard of life, as well as of education, there. During his ten years at Merom he baptized and received into the church 138 persons, and saw a steadily-increasing attendance year after year.

Ill health compelled him to resign in 1875, though he never lost his interest in Union Christian College. After resting for two years, he became pastor of the Congregational church in Chelsea, Michigan, till forced to give up the active ministry, in 1884.

Dr. Holmes is never idle. When freed from pastoral care, he gave his time to study as perhaps never before, and, having arrived at the stage of growth in which "he could throw aside his mental crutches," he found the work easier than ever. He has given to the world three valuable books: "Light in Dark Places," "The Reformation of the Nineteenth Century," and "The Kingdom of God," which was issued a few months before the author celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday. Of this book one of our leading men wrote: "You have commanded my high appreciation, and in many respects it ('The Kingdom of God') has no rival in literature."

Dr. Holmes is interested in the work being done by the whole brotherhood, and reports of successes throughout our Church are ever pleasing to him, and he delights in sending to The Herald articles which make it easier for the people to understand "the things of the kingdom of God."

IN the picture his son, W. B., is seen back of the father's right shoulder; his youngest son, A. G., is standing back of his father's left shoulder, and his son, G. P., is sitting on the left of his father.

Rev. Mr. Hurst is a native of Kentucky, having been born in Fleming County, that State, in 1852. His parents were members of the Methodist Church, but he united with the Christians under the preaching of Elder Muse, at Point Pleasant, Kentucky, in the year 1878, and was licensed to preach that same year. At a session of the Kentucky Christian Conference, held at Plumville, Kentucky, in 1881, he was ordained to the ministry by Elders G. W. Mefford, A. B. Manchester, and Z. Tyree, at which time he united with the conference. He remained a member of the Kentucky Christian Conference until 1907, when he united with the Southern Kansas Christian Conference. His first preaching was in a schoolhouse at Muses Mills, where the St. Johns church now stands, and where he organized the first of the nine churches he organized during his ministry in Kentucky. He organized three churches while living in Kansas, viz.: Bennettsville, Cassoday, and Beaumont.

During his ministry he has received to fellowship more than two thousand persons, and has baptized two thousand and seventeen (2017), completing the second thousand while living at Beaumont, Kansas. He served the Kentucky Christian Conference as president for two years and as vice-president for ten years. He was president of the Kentucky State Conference for four years. He is now at Progresso, New Mexico, where he is preaching regularly and is planning to organize a church in the near future.

NEW MISSION CHURCH

By M. T. Morrill

EVER since the inception of the mission in Porto Rico we have felt the need of a church building in Ponce, the headquarters of our work, and the second largest city on the island. Several times we have been on the point of acquiring a building site, but for various reasons did not effect our purpose. Finally in the summer of 1910 we purchased a large corner lot, fronting south and west, about a square from the public plaza, in the heart of the city and on the street-car line. This is an excellent location on many accounts.

Meantime the building fund had been growing slowly, chiefly by additions from birthday offerings from Sunday-schools and gifts from individuals. It will be remembered that the quadrennial convention had urged the birthday offering plan for the equipment of the Porto Rico work. A friend whose name has been steadily withheld from publication gave several thousand dollars, and Mr. John H. Barrett, of Charleston, West Virginia, brother of Rev. D. P. Barrett, of Ponce, gave $1,000. Then the way was open for erection of a church building. Mr. B. L. Nichols, deacon in Park Place (Third) Christian church, Norfolk, Va., was asked to draft plans and specifications, which he graciously did. Upon his invitation the Foreign Mission Secretary visited Mr. Nichols in his home and carefully went over the plans and specifications with the architect, receiving suggestions as to any possible modifications of details. This was late in February, 1912; and from Norfolk the Foreign Secretary proceeded to Porto Rico with the plans, where they were submitted to contractors for bids. After some delay bids were secured, and about the first of April Mr. Barrett, of Ponce, was able to sign contract for erection of the new mission church building. Mr. F. Torres, contractor, began his work at once and pushed it, so that by August 1 the structure was nearly finished, except a few minor details. Since that date the finishing touches have been put on, and the brethren have been waiting for the furnishings. A special call on the Sunday-schools has brought money for seating the auditorium and putting in windows; the Christian Endeavor Society at Elon College will furnish the necessary carpeting; and the Suffolk church is providing the pulpit furniture.

The general appearance of the edifice is clearly given by the illustration herewith printed. The dimensions over all are nearly 50 by 60 feet. Entrance is gained by the tower on the corner. In the wing at your right, as you look at the picture, are Sunday-school rooms which will probably accommodate the primary department. The main auditorium is calculated to seat 250 persons, and by folding doors is separated from the Sunday-school rooms, so that when necessary the whole building can be thrown open as one. Brick and hard pine were the main materials for construction, the brick walls cemented within and without, according to the prevalent methods of building in Porto Rico. Contract price for building, including electric wiring and light fixtures and and drain for baptistry, $6,250, which has been paid. Assembly chairs fastened together in sections will be used for seating the auditorium.

By the time the ANNUAL is in the hands of readers, it is expected that Rev. J. F. Burnett, D. D., and Mrs. Burnett, will be on their way to Porto Rico to be present at the dedication of the new church some time in January, 1913, the date not being set at this writing. When this church building is occupied it will prove a great help to our missionary work in the city and on the island, and large and increasing rental for a public meeting place will be eliminated. The completion of this project should be a source of joy to us all.

LIBERTY CHAPEL

THE quaint old meeting-house, the picture of which adorns this page, is the first house of worship built by the Christians in southern Ohio, and as far as known to the writer, the first built by them in the State. The building is of stone, and stands on the east bank of the west fork of Eagle Creek in Brown County, Ohio. It was built in 1812, under the pastoral care of Elder John Longley, of Kentucky, evidently a product of the Cane Ridge Revival. Elder Matthew Gardner says in his autobiography: "When Longley left the church, in this low condition, they wanted me to preach for them. But my time was all occupied. They settled a preacher named David Hathaway. He preached a short time and then left. They obtained others, who did likewise, till finally the Disciple sect, called Campbellites, arose, when their preachers came along and began to preach there. Some of the members united with them, and the rest were scattered. The Disciples took possession of the house and occupy it to this day." The Disciples have built a new house, and continue to occupy the field even until now.

The picture of this old building was furnished by Joseph Montgomery, whose grandfather, Joseph Hughes, superintended its construction, a full hundred years ago.

THE SUFFOLK CHRISTIAN CHURCH

THE Suffolk Christian church was organized in November, 1860, by Rev. W. B. Wellons, D. D., and had twenty-five charter members. The first house was dedicated by Pastor Wellons the second Sunday in March, 1862. June 17, 1862, Dr. Wellons left Suffolk, which was in the possession of the Federal Army. Rev. J. W. Wellons occupied the pulpit till November, 1862. The chaplain of the Federal Army used it a few Sundays, and then the Federal Army used the church as a hospital. It was finally closed till May, 1865, when Dr. Wellons returned and resumed his pastorate, to find his flock scattered.

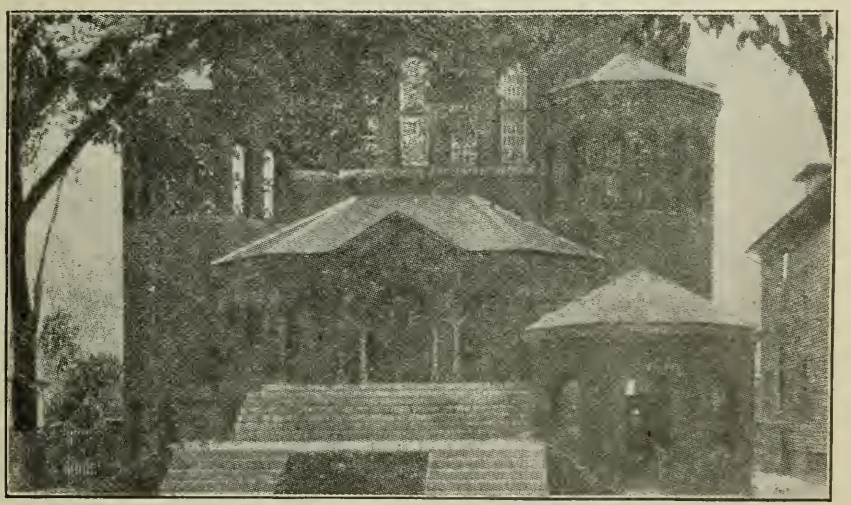
W. W. Staley

Pastorates run as follows: W. B. Wellons, D. D., 1860-1876, 16 years; J. T. Whitley, 1876-1879, 3 years; Wm. T. Walker, 1879-1882, 3 years; W. W. Staley, 1882-1912, 30 years.

Members received: 1860-1876, 262; 1876-1879, 22; 1879-1882, 30; 1882-1912, 816.

In 1884 an addition was made to the church, at a cost of $2,075.40, making church property a value of $5,000.000. The present church was erected at a cost of $30,000.00, in 1892-1893, and dedicated by Rev. C. J. Jones, D. D., the last Sunday in January, 1894. This year $10,000.00 was put into the Sunday-school annex and improvements.

The church is now giving $2,500.00 a year to outside causes and carrying current expenses.



Suffolk Church

The church has a good parsonage adjoining the house of worship, on Main Street, in a city of 10,000.

Total value of church property, $60,000.00.

THE CANE RIDGE MEETING-HOUSE

CANE RIDGE MEETING-HOUSE

THIS historic old house is situated in Bourbon County, Ky. It was built by the Presbyterians in 1791. Rev. Robert Finley was then in pastoral charge of the church. It was built of logs, not one of which was more than twenty feet in length. The roof was of clap-boards fastened on with wooden pins. The writer has one of the original pins in his possession. The interior of the house is forty by fifty feet. The ceiling is fifteen feet in height. The main entrance was from the west side of the building. An aisle runs the whole length of the room from the entrance. The pulpit was on the north side, and was boxed up, with an entrance at the side leading up several steps to the platform on which the preacher stood, and from which he literally looked down upon his people. The building was furnished with a gallery, the only means of entrance to it being an ordinary ladder. It was in this house that the great Cane Ridge Revival began in 1800. This was the home of the distinguished Barton W. Stone and David Purviance. The house has the distinction of being the first house of the Christians in the State of Kentucky. To this old church the Christians look with the tenderest feelings, and the keenest delight. It was the beginning of their life in the West; and yet they look toward it with saddest hearts for the reason that it is now controlled by another body of people.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH, BOSTON, MASS.

THE Christian church of Boston was organized July 1, 1804, when a few people gathered on the banks of the Charles River, near where the Massachusetts General Hospital now stands. And there, like John of old, Rev. Abner Jones baptized seven young people, and as they stood on the banks of the river he extended to them the right hand of fellowship, and organized them into what was known as the "Free Christian Church." Of these seven persons baptized, there was but one married couple. The others were apprentices or mechanics, receiving but small pay. Still, as in Christ's time, the common people heard the message gladly. They worshiped mostly in private houses and school buildings, until a well-to-do Baptist brother hired them a hall on Friend Street, out of Hanover Street. Here they worshiped until 1824, when Jacob Tidd built them a meeting-house at the foot of Summer Street, the corner of Sea Street, now Broad Street. He sold it to them for $6000, and they worshiped here until 1851, when the society sold it to the "Fort Hill Seamen's Friend Society" for $17,000. This left them $11,000 with which to build this church, which cost $22,200, including organ.

This building was dedicated in 1853.

The first pastor of the church was Rev. Abner Jones. He is known as the founder of the Christian Church in New England.

The next pastor was Rev. Elias Smith, formerly of Portsmouth, N. H. He was followed by Rev. Simon Clough, of Maine. Then came Rev. Charles Morgridge and Rev. Isaac C. Goff, who remained but one year each. The next pastor was Rev. Joshua V. Himes, who was much beloved by his people and continued with them for six years.

The aggressive work of this church began with the call and installation of Rev. Edward Edmunds, in 1843, and he continued his labors until 1897, with the exception of about three years, 1879-1882, when Rev. P. W. Sinks was pastor.

When John B. Gough visited Boston on invitation of Rev. Mr. Edmunds he delivered his first Temperance Lecture to Bostonians in this church.

The Boston Christian Church

On Sunday, March 24, 1895, the church voted to secure the service of Rev. Chris. F. Reisner for the following year. He was then a student in the Boston University School of Theology. He was followed by Rev. Sheridan W. Bell, who continued to labor here until April, 1898, when Rev. Menzo W. Borthwick became pastor, and remained until April, 1901. The church was supplied during the summer and in October of that year Rev. D. L. Martin, Ph. D., was elected pastor.

During the pastorate of Dr. Martin a Chinese Sunday-school was organized, which has been continued with great success to the present time. In June, 1908, Rev. P. S. Sailer became pastor. The Chinese Sunday-school was continued, and in addition a school for Syrian children was organized. During a portion of the time a paid assistant was made possible by special contributions of the Woman's Board for Home Missions. Rev. Mr. Sailer continued as pastor until May, 1912. Finding it increasingly difficult to care for the interests and maintain the work, on October 9, 1912, the church voted to place the property in the hands of the Mission Board. The Board accepted the trust and is proceeding to administer the same in cooperation with the church and the New England Convention.

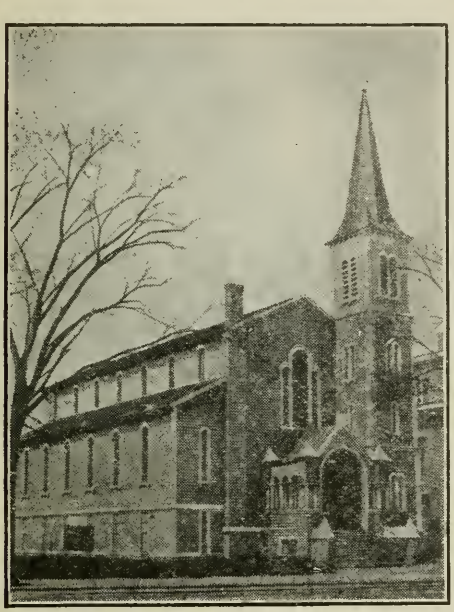
UNION OF BROAD STREET CHRISTIAN AND ELMWOOD CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

By W. G. Sargent

THE union of the two above churches is to be recorded as one of the advance steps of the year.

For some years the old Broad Street church was being rapidly crowded out of its constituency by reason of the movement of business up into the section of the city in which it was located. As a former pastor expressed it on the night of the first union service, "I knew in the seventies, when I first became associated with the church that its work was practically done in the location in which it then was."

Recently the necessity of moving seemed to be accentuated, and in its investigations the possibility of buying the property of the Elmwood Congregational Temple, which at that time was being served by an acting pastor was proposed. It was soon discovered, however, that the friends of the Elmwood church were not in favor of selling, but would probably consider the question of union.



Elmwood Church

Committees were appointed by both churches to consider the possibility of union, and, after several meetings, articles of agreement were drawn up which were adopted, substantially as agreed upon in committee, by both churches. The third Sunday in September the congregations met together for worship in the building of the Congregational church, with the pastors of both churches, assisted by Rev. Dr. Tillinghast, pastor emeritus of the Broad Street church, conducting the service.

The united church, to be known as the Elmwood Christian church, is a member of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts Christian Conference, and its constitution provides for contributions to the American Christian Convention in all its departments. The district by which the church is surrounded is almost wholly residential, and is one of the best in the city of Providence for church work. The properties of the two churches, both of them of considerable value, particularly that of the Broad Street church, from its proximity to the business section of the city, are merged into one and become the possession of the united church. The new church will seek incorporation on the basis of the articles of agreement as soon as the legislature of Rhode Island convenes.

The members of both churches are entering heartily upon the work and the future is full of promise. One of the first acts of the united church, after consultation with the Mission Board, was to adopt a mission station in Japan, agreeing to bear the expense of such a point as its contribution to the missionary work of the Convention.

THE IRVINGTON CHRISTIAN CHURCH

AFTER a series of evangelistic services lasting nearly a year, conducted by Miss Ann Rexford, an efficient Christian minister, Rev. Simon Clough, at that time pastor of the Christian church in New York City, assisted by Rev. William Lane, pastor of the Christian church of Milford, N. J., what is now known as the First Christian church of Irvington, N. J., was organized as a branch or mission of the New York church. This organization occurred on the twenty-fifth day of September, 1830. On the twenty-fourth day of October of the same year, by unanimous consent of the New York Christian church, it was organized as the First Christian church of Irvington, N. J., with forty-three members.

W. H. Hainer

Rev. I. C. Goff, who was the chief instrument in this second organization, was called as the first regular pastor, and, in three pastorates, served the church for thirty-eight years, receiving in all some 200 members. This church, like many others of its age, has experienced many scenes of prosperity and adversity.

We note among the pastors who have labored in this field, such men as Dr. I. C. Goff, Revs. L. D. Flemming, J. H. Currier, W. Andrews, O. J. Wait, G. W. Hawk, J. S. Maxwell, Gardner Dean, William Lane, C. A. Beck, and L. W. Hainer.

The first church building was dedicated, free of debt, September, 1844. The second building was dedicated, free of debt, June 26, 1890. The present splendid edifice was dedicated Sunday, April 21, 1912. Rev. L. W. Hainer, D. D., of Norristown, Pa., brother of the present pastor (and, so far as known, the only living ex-pastor), preached the dedicatory sermon. Rev. W. H. Hainer, the present pastor, completes his twenty-fifth year of service with this church Feb. 1, 1913. He has given the hand of fellowship to 507 persons. The present resident and active membership is 385. Present enrollment in Sunday-school, 1,070, including Home Department and Cradle Roll; average attendance during winter months, 500.

THE CHRISTIAN ORPHANAGE

Rev. Emory M. Carter, Superintendent

Officers—E. M. Carter, Superintendent; Prof. W. P. Lawrence, Treasurer.

Trustees—Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., Chairman, Elon College, N. C.; Rev. I. W. Johnson, Secretary, Suffolk, Va.; Hon. W. H. Carroll, Burlington, N. C.; H. C. Simpson, Greensboro, N. C.; C. D. West, Newport News, Va.; Maj. Elijah Moffit, Asheboro, N. C.; G. S. Watson, M. D., Elon College, N. C.

Emory M. Carter

The Christian Orphanage was authorized by the Southern Christian Convention, in session at Burlington, N. C., 1896. For a number of years money was collected by "The Band of Cousins" through "The Children's Corner" of the Christian Sun; there being about $10,000.00 on hand at the time of the Convention. The Board of Trustees located the Orphanage at Elon College, N. C., December 27, 1904. The property consists of 114 acres of land, sixty acres pretty well timbered, valued at $2,500.00; the Children's Building, a substantial brick, two stories, with a frontage of 116 feet and costing about $9,000.00, also a good large barn, granary, silo, and storage room. Three horses, nine milch cows, and some smaller cattle. The farm is fairly well equipped with implements of various kinds. The boys are taught industrial duties of farm life and the girls domestic science.

There are fifty-two children: twenty-five girls and twenty-seven boys, and the Executive Committee accepted eight more at the meeting November 29, 1912.

The institution has no mortgage indebtedness, and its only financial obligations for outstanding accounts on current expenses. The permanent endowment, only the interest on which is used, is $2,900.00.

The Christian Orphanage

The Southern Christian Convention, under whose auspices the Orhanage was built and is conducted, asks all churches within its borders to take one collection a year, at Thanksgiving or the nearest church service thereto, for the support of the institution. Also all Sunday-schools are asked to make one collection per month from the regular collections. Other than these two means, the Orphanage is dependent upon special offerings and free-will gifts from whatever source they may come.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH, KESWICK, ONTARIO

Rev. W. Percy Fletcher, B. A., Pastor

THE Keswick church is the oldest organization of the Christians in Canada, having been organized in the year 1821.

About the year 1820, Mrs. Mary Stogdill moved over to Newmarket, Canada, from New York. She had been converted in the Christian Church under the preaching of Elder David Millard, at Greenville, N. Y.

W. P. Fletcher

Soon after locating in Newmarket, she wrote back to the States imploring some one to come over and preach the gospel, and represent the Christians in her newly-chosen home. Her letter was addressed to T. Brown, in which she referred to the fact that Paul, sought "other countries, that he might not build on another's foundation." Sometime in the autumn of 1821, a young man by the name of Allen Huntley went over to Newmarket, and at the home of Mrs. Stogdill met Darius Mann, who invited him to go to Lake Simco, which invitation he accepted, and while there was ordained to the Christian ministry, in October, 1821. The Keswick church was organized by Elders J. T. Bailey and Simeon Bishop, having forty-three charter members. Elder Huntley remained in Canada but a year, but his work has followed him for nearly a century. This church in the country is the mother church in the great Dominion; has always been loyal, strong, and worshipful. It's strength has not been depleted by the cityward movement of recent years. Its pastor, Rev. W. Percy Fletcher, B. A., is a member of the general Mission Board, and president of the Ontario Christian Conference. He cherishes the hope that on this historic spot where the present structure now stands, there will, in the near future, be erected a thoroughly modern meeting house.

The evangelistic note has never ceased at Keswick, and the mother church has not failed in her fruit bearing. She has enjoyed the pastoral service of some of the very able ministers of the Dominion and of the States as well. Two pastors of recent years from the States were the late Rev. J. W. Dennin and Rev. Silas Mosteller, now of North Rush, New York.

REV. W. W. BAGBY

Hamersville, Ohio

The accompanying picture is of Rev. William Walter Bagby.

He was born in Felicity, Ohio.

He is yet alive and in reasonably good health.

He will be seventy-five years old on his next birthday.

He united with the Christian Church at "Old" Salem, Ohio, February 15, 1855.

He was received to membership and baptized by Elder C. S. Manchester.

He has been in the Christian ministry forty-seven years.

He was ordained at Benton Chapel by Elders A. B. Manchester, J. C Vandament, and R. A. M. Johnston, November, 1872.

He has been a reader of "The Herald of Gospel Liberty" for fifty-seven years.

He was married to Clarisa Love, January 31, 1861, Elder C. S. Manchester officiating.

He served in Company K, 59 O. V. I., for three years.

He had the sad experience a few years ago of losing his wife by death, of whom he says: "She was worthy of more praise than she ever received."

He has been pastor of many churches and served them well.

He has been loyal to the Christian Church and all her interests.

He responds to almost every call of the American Christian Convention and most always with a V or an X.

He has been a faithful and regular attendant at the Southern Ohio Conference since 1877.

He has an appreciative heart, an open hand, and a good home, to all of which all his brethren are always welcome.

He is entitled to sit with the elders of the land here, and will sit with the four and twenty elders in heaven.

TO MRS. EMMA DICKSON

(On her 90th Birthday.)

Dear Emma Dickson's pilgrim way
To fields of God, where is no night,
Through briers sharp, or flowers gay,
Leads ever straight toward heaven's light.

Or, if she's now a temple named,
Her columns broken, windows dim,
'Tis not in vain:—to ninety years
The Holy Spirit dwelt therein.

Or, if a branch we call her now,
We think of Jesus Christ, her vine:
Her fruits through life from him derived,
Abundant, sweet, like him, divine.

Or, if we think of Shepherd's cry
O'er sandy waste and mountain rock,
She'll hear the cry and know the voice:
For she's a lamb of his dear flock.

But "pilgrim," "temple," "branch" and "lamb"
But poorly tell her spirit mild:
For Emma Dickson's born of God;
In fact, through Christ, she's God's dear child.

THEY REST FROM THEIR LABORS

"And he said to me, These are they that come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no more; neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat: for the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes."—Rev. 7: 14.

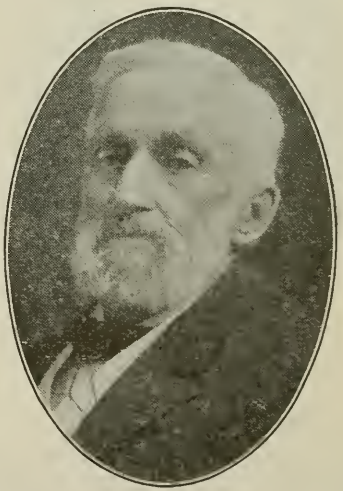
Born July 6, 1821.

Died August 25, 1912.



From the age of sixteen he became a teacher in the Sunday-school. At the age of seventeen he taught his first public school. An early conviction rested upon his mind that he should become a minister of the gospel, and in June, 1843, he united with the conference and accepted license to preach, though as yet he had not attempted to do so. His first charge was in West Newburyport, Massachusetts, under the oversight of Rev. Daniel P. Pike. His second charge was in Skowhegan, Maine, his home church. In 1851 he resigned this charge to take the agency for raising funds for the establishment of Antioch College. About a month after the opening of this college, in 1853, he entered the freshman class, and graduated in 1857.

He was then chosen for a professorship, and remained for a period of twenty-four years.

He was elected president of the Christian Biblical Institute to succeed Doctor Craig at his death in 1882, and practically remained at the head of the Institute throughout the remainder of his life, though relieved of the active duties of president for a year or two immediately preceding his death.

He studied law and was admitted to the bar in September, 1877, at which time he received the degree of LL. B.

He soon felt himself embarrassed by the conditions of legal practice and being determined to live out the life he had for God he turned his mind toward the ministry, though aware of its hard-

Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va.—secretary.

Territory—The Southern Christian Convention is composed of the following conferences: Virginia Valley Central Conference, A. W. Andes, Harrisonburg, Va., secretary; Georgia and Alabama Conference, J. F. Hill, Jr., Phoenix, Ala., secretary; Alabama Conference, J. W. Payne, Wedowee, Ala., R. D. 3, secretary; Eastern Virginia Conference, Rev. I. W. Johnson, Suffolk, Va., secretary; Western North Carolina Conference, Rev. J. W. Patton, Elon College, N. C., secretary; N. C. and Virginia Conference, W. P. Lawrence, Elon College, N. C., secretary; Eastern North Carolina Conference, Rev. W. C. Wicker, Elon College, N. C., secretary.

In accordance with the Convention recommendations, all the conferences have organized local Conference Missionary Associations. These associations have been officered in the manner of the Convention Association. By the plans thus inaugurated the funds for home missions will be greatly increased. As regards foreign missions, there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conferences for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at Suffolk, Va., shows Elon College to be highly successful and the endowment increased to $30,000. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually of $2,200 for Elon College. Thus the college is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress. In 1904, it was decided to build a new dormitory to cost about $20,000, with modern equipments. This building is now completed at a cost of about $40,000. It contains music rooms and art studio, in addition to accommodations for about one hundred young ladies. Prof. W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C., is president of the college, and its financial affairs are entrusted to him. The president has conducted a campaign, raising an endowment of $50,000.

A gymnasium is under construction at a cost of $15,000. Present enrollment of Elon College 306.

The Orphanage, projected by the Convention, is now opened, and is under the management of Rev. E. M. Carter, superintendent, Elon College, N. C. He is also the authorized financial agent. There are at present 47 children in the Orphanage.

The Christian Sun, purchased by the Southern Convention, is edited by Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., who was re-elected.

Next session will meet Tuesday before the first Sunday in May, 1914. The selection of the place was left to the Executive Committee, which will also prepare the program and order of business.

MINISTERIAL STATISTICS

I have carefully gone over the ministerial statistics for the years named, and think that the statements are substantially correct.

There are no statistics at my command between the years 1849 and 1872.

I think it safe to conclude that when no licentiates are reported, that they are numbered with the ordained.

What is Said of "Writings and Addresses"

Rev. J. Pressley Barrett, D. D., says:

"The book is rich in thought and sweet in spirit. The discussion of various themes is able and helpful, illuminating. You and your family need the influence of the thought of this great and good man."

Rev. David E. Millard says:

"It is unquestionably one of the most valuable books ever published by our people. It ought to have a place in the library of every Christian minister and in the home of every member of the Christian Church."

Rev. E. A. Watkins says:

"The book is written in a very simple, but clear and concise style, and is of that type of reading which cannot help but be an inspiration to any one reading it. If young men desire something to help in clearness of expression, and to give a lucid, clear-cut style of speaking or writing, I would recommend this as one of the books to read. It especially should be read by young preachers."

A HISTORY of the CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION IN AMERICA

BY MILO TRUE MORRILL, M. A., D. D.

What The Book Is

A history of the movement inaugurating and perpetuating the Christian Denomination in America, tracing its development from the year 1794 down to the present—condensed but yet in such detail that the main idea is never obscured.

A thoroughly up-to-date book for everybody, layman as well as minister, who wants to know about the Christians. Theology is conspicuous because of its absence.

Printed on extra good, heavy paper, large type page, large, clear print, bound in green cloth with gilt stamp.

What The Book Contains

16 chapters.

408 pages.

6 half-tones in color.

1 4-page Graphic History of The Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Hundreds of foot-notes.

Bibliography.

An appendix of rare matter and useful data, names, etc., not readily accessible to most readers.

A thorough and copious index that puts the whole array of material at your service in a moment's time.

What The Book Does

Presents vivid and interesting biographical sketches of early leaders of the denomination.

Helps readers to understand the times in which those leaders lived.

Devotes a chapter to the Principles and Polity of the Christians.

Reproduces statistical data from period to period.

Gives an interesting account of early academies and fitting schools, and quite complete sketches of all colleges and the theological school of the denomination.

Devotes one chapter to the unions attempted or proposed with various denominations.

Indicates by foot-notes and otherwise the source of material entering into the volume, so that readers may go to the original work.

A HISTORY of the CHRISTIAN DENOMINATION IN AMERICA

Testimonials

J. F. Burnett, D. D., says:

"I have read the book. I read the manuscript. The book is all right. It is a Denominational Classic. It is true historically. Events are faithfully and fully given. The classification by periods is wise and helpful. The interpretation is sane and sound. The reviews are full and clear. All dates are verified by the most reliable authority. The literary integrity of the author is beyond question. The style of the book is attractive and the reading easy. The minister who does not read it will miss the richest and best of all our books."

F. G. Coffin, D. D., says:

"In my judgment, no more valuable contribution to our denominational literature has ever been made. It supplies what we have long needed, in just the form to be most serviceable. Dr. Morrill's literary style is individual and interesting, his vocabulary simple and varied and his fidelity to facts, regardless of their reflection, absolute. His analysis and interpretation of the history which he has recorded is one of the strongest features of the work. The exhaustive index facilitates its ready reference features. The generous spirit in which reference is made to other denominations will also endear the book to many readers. All phases of our many-sided history have been faithfully detailed with the author's emphasis on the practical."

Martyn Summerbell, D. D., LL. D., says:

"The history is clear, well-balanced, and accurate, and covers the ground as completely as could be expected in a single volume. He has told the story of men and movements with scrupulous fidelity to fact, and has delved into original sources to make sure of his ground. It would have been very easy for the author here and there to have taken a partisan position, but he has avoided the pitfalls shrewdly and related the march of events in a manner to win the general approval of the wise. This history should be in every home of the Christians, and with it there some of the confusions and errors exhibited by some of the children of the church as to our own position, and that of other bodies, that have misrepresented us, will be absolutely inexcusable."

W. A. Harper, President of Elon College, says:

"I have not had time to read with care the History of the Christian Denomination, by Dr. Milo T. Morrill, but even a cursory examination reveals the unmistakable conclusion that it is an epoch-making publication in our cause. Our history is a glorious one and full of inspiration, and I have often wished for just such a book as this. If our people will read it, it will increase their loyalty and deepen their conviction that the Christian Church has a place and a large one at that in the advancement of the kingdom. I trust the book will not only have wide circulation, but that it will be adopted as a text-book in our colleges."

Rev. Alva M. Kerr, says:

"It is admirably done and you deserve the gratitude of our brotherhood. Your insight into the spirit and movement of the different periods and your interpretation of events, as well as your concise and clear statement of events and care in adhering to the facts even when it might have been more interesting and pleasant to have shaded them a bit, mark you as having much ability as a historian. I do hope that you will not stop until you have compiled another book giving some of those "personal" touches in which we would all be so interested."

THE KINGDOM OF GOD

BY THOMAS HOLMES, D. D., LL. D.

This is a new book. The product of new thought from a new View-point. The commonly received idea of the Kingdom of God is that "Jehovah is a great King over all the earth" because He is Almighty—Omnipotent, and nothing can resist His authority. The author of this work contends that God is our King because He is "Our Father," and it is both the right and the duty of every father to govern his children. Hence, the Kingdom of God is a Family Government.

Every command of a wise and loving father is an authoritative precept of instruction, informing the child what he or she must do to secure his own highest good; and also promote the welfare of the whole family. Disobedience is, therefore, self-destructive, and destructive of the peace, order, and highest good of the whole family. The necessity of perfect obedience is positive and unalterable; and the motive to obedience is filial love, and unselfish devotion to the welfare of the whole family.

From these facts as a basis, the whole business of a human life, in its relations to both God and fellow-creatures, must be studied and actuated. This includes the obligation to repent when there has been any disregard of the obligations these relations impose; and is the point of view from which to study God's plan of salvation through His Son Jesus Christ, as revealed in the Scriptures. It is also the basis of all correct Moral Philosophy, and Doctrinal Theology.

After stating his theory, the author proceeds to show that the whole history of the human race illustrates and proves it correct. 314 pages, cloth bound. Price, postpaid, $1.25, net.
